

GRAVE CHARGES ARE FILED AGAINST A WELLSVILLE MAN

A. B. Smith, Prominent Oil Operator, Defendant in Divorce Suit.

HIS WIFE HAS LEFT HIM

And She Thinks She Has Excellent Reason For Deciding to Do So.

LETTER FROM A YOUNG WOMAN

Gave Her the Clue Which Resulted in Her Suit—The Accused Girl Said to Have Repented and Confessed in Full.

A sensational divorce suit has been entered in the circuit court at Lisbon. Mrs. Alexander B. Smith, wife of a prominent oil operator of Wellsville, has separated from her husband, for the best reason which can be assigned, it is alleged, for such action.

For about three years, it is alleged, Mr. Smith has been intimate with a girl in Wellsville now but 18 years of age. All this time everything ran smoothly and Mrs. Smith was in ignorance of his alleged infidelity until she happened to get from the postoffice a letter addressed to Mr. Smith by his girl. In this letter she asked him for money to procure some articles of dress. This, of course, was a great blow to the wife, and she was soon after taken sick from worry and incidentally from malarial fever. She wrote to her sister, who lives in British Columbia, telling her of the letter. This caused the sister to come immediately to Wellsville, arriving Friday, April 27.

The sister, soon after reaching Wellsville, hunted up the father of the girl and told him of the matter. In the meantime, it seems that the unfortunate woman had been converted and repented of her sins. When questioned by her father, remorse for the great wrong she had done Mrs. Smith drove her to unload her conscience by telling the whole sad story.

The girl and her father called on Mrs. Smith and her sister at the Smiths' rooms, where the story was told. Later a confession in writing was made, which she signed, showing her willingness to do all she could to right the wrong. She also gave them letters, written, it is claimed, by Smith, in which he expressed a desire to meet her at various places and containing other matters of a highly incriminating nature.

Several of these letters are of a very recent date. From them it appears he wanted to make appointments with her after she had been converted and while Mrs. Smith was ill. She claims that since her conversion her conduct has been proper and that she has refused to have anything to do with Smith.

On the Sunday following Smith learned that the bomb had exploded and proceeded to his rooms where he found his wife and sister-in-law. He, it is said, demanded that the letters which the girl had turned over to them be given to him. The women told him the letters were in a safe place and he could not have them.

Quite a scene is said to have followed and the excitement so affected Mrs. Smith that a physician was summoned. On Tuesday, April 29, Mrs. Smith and her sister started for British Columbia where Mrs. Smith hopes to recuperate. Before leaving she employed an attorney to institute proceedings for divorce and will return when the matter comes up in court at Lisbon.

SALEM CITY SUED

Damages Claimed Because a Street Sweeper Scared Horses.

Lisbon, May 12.—(Special)—W. G. Waithman, of Salem, has sued the city of Salem for $120.85 damages. He claims that a street sweeper, sweeping on Broadway, persisted in sweeping around his horses' feet, causing them to run away.

Both horses were injured, one having its hip broke.

VICTORY FOR THE DRYS

Rejoicing Among Foes of Saloons in East Palestine Village.

East Palestine, May 12.—(Special)—The war between the wets and the dry is over and there is rejoicing among the latter. The contest was exciting, but saloons were voted down by a good majority. The total vote for east and west precincts stood: Dry, 328; wet, 230.

This is the third time East Palestine has gone dry. At the second election the majority against license was 22.

PAINTERS FELL FROM SCAFFOLD

HOMER CUMMINGS THE VICTIM OF SERIOUS INJURIES.

An Accident in the East End Gave Two Men a Close Call.

Homer Cummings, a painter employed by Glenn & Baxter, of West Market street, met with an accident in the East End this morning which may prove very serious. He and Dan McGovern were standing on a poorly constructed scaffold when it broke and precipitated them to the ground, a distance of 20 feet.

McGovern escaped unhurt, but Cummings, falling on a sharp edged stone, sustained probably fatal injuries, his right side and hip being badly crushed.

The patrol was called and conveyed the unfortunate man to his home and family at Walker.

WARM TIME AHEAD

Butchers' Association Proposes to Take Up the Case of a Withdrawing Member.

There is to be a meeting of butchers' association Thursday evening and the session gives promise of being the most interesting that has been held for weeks.

The action of one member in severing his relations with the association will be the main topic for discussion, and the result of this will be watched with more than ordinary interest. It was exclusively announced in this paper a few days ago that an East End meat dealer had withdrawn from the "combine," and the statement was made this morning that each one in the association was under a bond of $50 to keep the agreements made at the time the association was perfected.

It is stated that, should the association decide to take the matter into a court of justice, the bonds that were deposited with the officials of the association will be found worthless. Such is the opinion quoted by one of the local attorneys to a member of the association.

The case of R. M. Haugh against the East Liverpool Railway company, wherein the latter is sued for $150 damages, which the plaintiff alleges are due him as a result of two collisions with his funeral car and wagon by street cars owned and operated by the defendant, is on trial today in Squire McLane's court.

The case will probably get to the jury this evening. Those constituting the jury are: S. R. Dixon, M. H. Bough, John Wyman, John W. Hall and William Kenny. Attorneys Boyd and Lones, of Wellsville, represent the plaintiff and Prosecutor Brookes the defendant.

TOUR OF INSPECTION

Being Made by the Street Committee of Council.

The street committee of council, accompanied by City Solicitor McGarry and City Engineer Kelly, were out in a carriage this afternoon, making an inspection of the streets preparatory to recommending certain action for improvements to council at its regular meeting to be held tomorrow evening.

By request of the Central Telephone company an inspection was made of Pennsylvania avenue and the places designated for the setting of poles along that thoroughfare.

Sued for $300.

Lisbon, May 12.—(Special)—The Bailey-Farrell Manufacturing company, of Pittsburg, has entered suit against Ansel B. Stubbins, of Wellsville, for $300 on account.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN

Carload of Passengers Narrowly Miss Death in the East End—Only Two Men Were Hurt.

A terrible accident was narrowly averted in the East End between 10 and 11 o'clock Saturday night, but as it was eight passengers on westbound car No. 8 of the East Liverpool street railway, received a severe shaking up, and Conductor Blue, who, it is alleged, was the cause of the accident, was severely injured about the knees.

The car was standing at the railroad crossing waiting for an eastbound freight to pass, said Supt. Reed this morning, and Conductor Blue, seeing the lights on the caboose, thought that by the time the car would start the train would be past Mulberry street, or the street railway tracks at least cleared. Motorman Goddard was also on the front step, and when he saw Blue turn the power into the controller knew that an accident would result. He made a lunge for the controller handle, but before he could seize it the car struck the caboose, the movement of the passing train throwing the car off the track and breaking a number of pieces out of a front wheel. The car was not damaged other than being scratched, and but one light of glass was broken.

Great excitement existed among the passengers for a time, all thinking the car would be turned over and many killed. With the exception of one passenger no one was injured and this was Samuel Larkins, who had a knee hurt. Mr. Larkins was also bringing several dozen of eggs to his home in this city, and all that was left of these after the accident was the shells. A statement of the loss of these will be sent to the company, so Mr. Larkins told a number of friends.

Conductor Blue has been on the road but a short time and was considered one of the best men on the road. That he should take the responsibility cannot be understood by the company. It is reasonable to believe that he will not work on the road again, at least for a while.

CALCUTTA FOLK ARE OBJECTING

Many Protests Against Those Who Would Stop Road Improvement.

THE HIGHWAY IS BAD

And Numerous People Would Be Glad to See It Changed For the Better—Where Some of the Worst Spots are Located.

There is no end of kicking in and about Calcutta over the actions of some persons in that locality, who are trying to get an injunction issued against the improvement of the Calcutta road by paving. If there ever was a road that needed to be paved, and that at once, it is Calcutta road. It is in a horrible condition, being nothing but a succession of holes from Calcutta to Riverview cemetery gate. There are certain portions of the road that at present two teams cannot pass, one team being compelled to wait at the wide portion of the road until the team going in an opposite direction passes. That persons would oppose an improvement so much needed, is more than can be understood by many residents of Calcutta.

In making the survey for this improvement the engineers placed stakes in the middle of the roadway, which extend several inches above the ground. At present the road is quite dusty near these stakes, and it is with difficulty that teamsters can see them and prevent their horses stumbling over them.

Even in Calcutta the road is in a bad condition, and that the improvement is being held back is not at all relished by those who desire to see their property increased in value.

THE PETITION FILED

St. Clair Township Citizens Fighting the Proposed Calcutta Road Improvement.

Lisbon, May 12.—(Special)—The petition in the case of George Grader, Benjamin J. Fisher and John P. Montgomery, of St. Clair township, against the trustees of that township has been filed. In this matter an injunction is asked, restraining the trustees from improving the Calcutta road through a bond issue.

The matter will come up for a hearing on Thursday.

ADJOURNMENT OF POTTERS DELAYED

The Brotherhood Convention Will Last Probably Until Wednesday.

TWO RESOLUTIONS PASSED

Greatest Number of Resolutions Ever Presented at a Convention Considered at Present Session—Delegates Think Well of Trenton.

Trenton, N. J., May 2.—When the Brotherhood convention commenced its business in this city last Monday it was expected that its work would be completed by Saturday evening, but so many resolutions have been introduced that it is now assured that the work of the convention will not be completed until Wednesday at the earliest.

This is absolutely necessary because of the fact that more resolutions are before the committees than ever before in the history of the Brotherhood. Some of the locals have but one or two resolutions, but most of them have five and six, and some few have as many as ten.

Saturday morning's session was totally devoted to the reception of reports from the committee on resolutions.

Many matters were favorably reported, but when they reached the convention they were rejected and but comparatively few resolutions were received and passed.

The most important resolution of public interest passed Saturday morning concerned a uniform price list in two branches of the industry.

The first was one making a uniform list for warehousemen. Each pottery now has its own list. This condition has always prevailed and has been a matter of considerable dispute among warehousemen.

The second resolution was one establishing a uniform list for machine-made dishes.

Heretofore this branch of the trade has been guided as to pay by shop prices and the scales of wages were as numerous as are potteries.

No resolutions of local interest were before the convention Saturday morning, but it is expected that the Trenton resolution calling for the revision of the sanitary price list will be reached soon.

This resolution simply asks that pieces of ware not now covered by the operative list be inserted.

There is no doubt but that this measure will pass the convention as soon as it gets from the committee on price lists.

Saturday afternoon's session convened at 1:30 o'clock, in order that an early adjournment might be taken to allow the delegates some recreation.

This session was taken up with the unfinished business of the morning, comprising reports on resolutions and price list.

A communication was read before the convention during the morning inviting the national officers and visiting delegates to view the city from the roof of the Broad Street National bank

The view was taken this morning at 11:45 o'clock, and to allow it the convention took an early adjournment.

EAGLES' REUNION

MANY THOUSANDS EXPECTED TO BE PRESENT.

Local Committee Has All Matters Arranged, and Tell of Large Delegations to Come.

Practically all arrangements are completed for the annual reunion of the Knights of the Golden Eagle which will be held at Rock Springs Park June 7. The local committee, who has charge of the reunion, which will be for members of the order from three states, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio, have within the past few days received word from lodges as far distant as Cleveland, Parkersburg, Springfield, Greensburg, Erie, New Castle, Wheeling, and other towns in the states, stating that large delegations are preparing to attend the outing. A member of the committee stated this morning that not less than 15,000 persons are expected to attend the big event. It promises to be the largest reunion ever held by the order. The local committee has left no stone unturned that would make the affair a success, which speaks well for the East Liverpool lodge.

ACTION FOR DIVORCE

Filed By a Wellsville Woman Who Charges Neglect and Desertion.

Lisbon, May 12.—(Special)—Mrs. Martha E. Gordon, of Wellsville, has begun an action for divorce against James H. Gordon. They were married in 1889 and have two children—James and Hazel, aged 12 and 10. She claims that about three years ago she was dangerously sick and that he refused to furnish her care or medicine and at the crisis of her illness left her. At that time he conducted himself so as to put her in danger.

She asks for the custody of the children and that he be compelled to provide for and educate them.

Seventy-fifth General Assembly of Ohio Adjourned Today.

ALMORT 1,000 NEW LAWS

Have Been Enacted by the Solons in the Past Few Months.

THE MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL

Were the Willis and Cole Measures Affecting Taxation—The Governor's Ideas Will Now Be Practically Tested.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 12.—The seventy-fifth general assembly of Ohio passed into history at noon today. The closing scenes were marked by the usual ceremonies consisting of the presentation of gifts to the president of the senate, speaker of the house and the leading officers of both bodies. Contemplation of a welcome emancipation from the cares and responsibilities which are attendant upon the life of a statesman filled the legislators with happiness and for the nonce peace, sweet and serene, prevailed. The customary resolution of respect for the speaker was adopted. The session has been one of the most eventful in the state's history and has bristled with exciting and stirring scenes at times. There have been many bitter fights and on two occasions it seemed that a riot was imminent. Be this as it may, the weary statesmen are glad that the session is over, and today they were in a forgiving mood. They were willing to let bygones be bygones and Democrats and Republicans fraternized together.

Almost 1,000 new laws have been made, the most conspicuous being those embodying the taxation scheme of the administration. The Willis and Cole bills were the most prominent of the taxation measures, the administration plan for the abolition of the state real and personal tax being based on these. These acts will determine the wisdom of Governor Nash's ideas on taxation. Another important bill made a law was the Cain measure providing for the collection of the Dow tax from speakeasies and places of questionable reputation, which sell liquor without the formality of paying the tax. These violators will be ferreted out by deputies of the dairy and food commissioner, who will report their names to the county auditor to place them on the duplicate.

The enforcement of this act will swell to no inconsiderable extent the present plethoric condition of the state treasury. Another law of much importance is the Longworth-Herrick bill giving municipalities authority to issue bonds without asking the legislature for special enactment. This will also cut down the work of the legislature because bills without number are dumped in at every session providing for special bond issues. The important bill which were done to death were the canal abandonment bill and the municipal code.

The house and senate waded through their calendars with amazing rapidity Saturday, the upper body remaining in session almost until the tolling of the midnight hour. Bills were jammed through in a twinkling. More genuine work was crowded into the last working day of the session than has been accomplished before in week's time. The house wrought with unceasing energy during the day and when the eventide had come had most of its business cleared away. Several attempts were made to hold sessions at night, but they were fruitless. The members were in a merry mood and proceeded to have a jolly time. Jest and books were hurled at each other. Even the stern features of Speaker McKinnon relaxed and he entered into the spirit of the occasion. Several of the Democratic members went outside where things were passed around. The closing hours of every session always witnesses such scenes.

Not until late Saturday afternoon was it known that an adjournment would be taken Monday. There were mutterings of discontent over the appropriation bills, which were finally re-

Seventy-fifth General Assembly of Ohio Adjourned Today.

ALMORT 1,000 NEW LAWS

Have Been Enacted by the Solons in the Past Few Months.

THE MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL

Were the Willis and Cole Measures Affecting Taxation—The Governor's Ideas Will Now Be Practically Tested.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 12.—The seventy-fifth general assembly of Ohio passed into history at noon today. The closing scenes were marked by the usual ceremonies consisting of the presentation of gifts to the president of the senate, speaker of the house and the leading officers of both bodies. Contemplation of a welcome emancipation from the cares and responsibilities which are attendant upon the life of a statesman filled the legislators with happiness and for the nonce peace, sweet and serene, prevailed. The customary resolution of respect for the speaker was adopted. The session has been one of the most eventful in the state's history and has bristled with exciting and stirring scenes at times. There have been many bitter fights and on two occasions it seemed that a riot was imminent. Be this as it may, the weary statesmen are glad that the session is over, and today they were in a forgiving mood. They were willing to let bygones be bygones and Democrats and Republicans fraternized together.

Almost 1,000 new laws have been made, the most conspicuous being those embodying the taxation scheme of the administration. The Willis and Cole bills were the most prominent of the taxation measures, the administration plan for the abolition of the state real and personal tax being based on these. These acts will determine the wisdom of Governor Nash's ideas on taxation. Another important bill made a law was the Cain measure providing for the collection of the Dow tax from speakeasies and places of questionable reputation, which sell liquor without the formality of paying the tax. These violators will be ferreted out by deputies of the dairy and food commissioner, who will report their names to the county auditor to place them on the duplicate.

The enforcement of this act will swell to no inconsiderable extent the present plethora of condition of the state treasury. Another law of much importance is the Longworth-Herrick bill giving municipalities authority to issue bonds without asking the legislature for special enactment. This will also cut down the work of the legislature because bills without number are dumped in at every session providing for special bond issues. The important bill which were done to death were the canal abandonment bill and the municipal code.

The house and senate waded through their calendars with amazing rapidity Saturday, the upper body remaining in session almost until the tolling of the midnight hour. Bills were jammed through in a twinkling. More genuine work was crowded into the last working day of the session than has been accomplished before in week's time. The house wrought with unceasing energy during the day and when the eventide had come had most of its business cleared away. Several attempts were made to hold sessions at night, but they were fruitless. The members were in a merry mood and proceeded to have a jolly time. Jest and books were hurled at each other. Even the stern features of Speaker McKinnon relaxed and he entered into the spirit of the occasion. Several of the Democratic members went outside where things were passed around. The closing hours of every session always witnesses such scenes.

Not until late Saturday afternoon was it known that an adjournment would be taken Monday. There were mutterings of discontent over the appropriation bills, which were finally re-

PRISON DEMON HAS BEEN TAMED

Ira Marlatt of This County Appears to Have Been Conquered
by Kindness.

HE HAS NO COMPLAINTS

To Make of the Prison As Now Managed—The Prisoner Explains Why
He Was Desperate in Former Years.

Columbus, May 12.—Under former managements of the Ohio penitentiary the star attraction of the prison was Ira Marlatt, a life prisoner from Columbiana county. He was the stock subject for sensational articles in the press. He was wild and ferocious, and the infliction of the most brutal and barbarous punishments only made him more rebellious and desperate.

The more the misguided officials attempted to subdue him by torture the worse he rebelled. They tried everything but humanity and kindness, and the untamed spirit of Marlatt responded with wild ferocity. As he grew more desperate those in charge became afraid of him, and they had a special cell built of boiler iron, 8 by 10 by 8, with only one little hole for ventilation, with rings above to string him up by the wrists, by way of exercise and to break the monotony of his solitary confinement. Here Marlatt was confined and tortured, and when a sensation was sought all that was necessary was to stick in a pole and stir him up like a wild beast and Marlatt responded with ferocity.

Under Warden Darby's management a humane policy has been pursued. He has realized that the prisoners are human and have rights that ought to be respected, and while brutal treatment could only degrade and harden patience and kindness might soften and redeem, if not reform. The prisoners have been well fed and better clothed. Men never meditate or commit crime on a full stomach, and the best managed prisons are those in which the prisoners are well fed, with an abundance of good, wholesome food. It is the hungry criminal that is always alert for mischief and eager for devilry. Caesar was not afraid of the fat and easy Brutus, but he "liked not the looks of that lean and hungry Casius."

John Cunningham, an old detective from Cincinnati, was placed in charge of the courtroom, and the solitary department, and with the warden's approval he resolved to try kindness in dealing with Marlatt. He was released from his cell and given some liberty, and immediately responded by a submissive and more gentle demeanor. Now he works in a shop near the solitary cells. He is an engraver by trade, and I found him sharpening a dividing tool. As his name was called he looked up, and upon introduction he paused and shook hands. He has a good face and a pair of those keen blue steel eyes that denote that indomitable grit and spirit that nothing but death can conquer. He stutters in his speech, and I can imagine that this infirmity must have been a source of infinite amusement to his keepers when subjecting their victim to torture.

He was anxious to know the fate of the bill to repeal the habitual criminal law. When entering the prison Warden Darby said: "Go any place and talk to any one." This is a dangerous privilege to grant to a newspaper man in some prisons, but is such a permit as would be readily given by a manager who is conscious of a humane purpose, and desires to discharge his duty in this most difficult position.

Taking advantage of the permission granted, Marlatt was asked why he had been so desperate and what had caused the change.

"Well, he said, 'they tried to break me for three years, and I was determined not to yield, even if they killed me, but under the present management they treat me kindly and I can't fight that. I know that Warden Darby is not to blame for my being here. It's his duty to take care of me and the rest of us and keep us here, and maintain order and discipline, and as long as I am treated kindly I don't want to be ungrateful and cause him any more trouble than I can help.'

"I don't think that any of us have any reason to complain of the present management. If any of us have any grievance we can send a request to the warden or the board, and get a hearing and receive justice, whereas if I even asked for a hearing before I received punishment of the worst description. That kind of treatment not only makes the prisoners worse, but it brutalizes and defeats the sole purpose for which prisons are created, which, as I take it, is to prevent crime and reform criminals."

STEALING FREIGHT

Railroad Detectives Propose to Investigate Recent Troubles in the East End.

The matter of stealing freight from the East End freight station has become a problem that the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad officials will sift to the bottom, and it is reasonable to suppose that when the work of the detectives has been completed, several arrests will follow, which, it is hoped, will serve to put a stop to all such work. The East End merchants have been much hampered by the stealing of freight, and it is quite evident that there is a gang of thieves in this part of the city which should be broken up.

Laying Water Mains.

A force of laborers under the direction of water works superintendent Phil Morley have about completed the task of laying a water main along the extension of St. George street. There will be a four-inch main on this part of the street, and as the pipe for the extension has been delivered, it will require but a few days to place it under the ground. This will give the residents of that part of the city a water service which they have been deprived of for years.

Chaffinville to Be Cleaned.

There was joy in Chaffinville this morning over the fact that the street force of the East End have commenced to clean the streets of that section. This work will be of little value unless the residents of that part of the city keep the neighborhood clean after the street men complete their work. All the alleys are to be also cleaned, and the entire section is to be thoroughly renovated.

Raising Boyce Street.

The East End street force has commenced the work of filling in Boyce street from Pennsylvania avenue to the sewer pipe works. In some places the street is quite low, but it is the intention of the street force to distribute enough cinders along the street to bring it up to the set grade.

A Small Fire.

A small chimney fire occurred yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the Grundy property on Third street, near city hall. The damage was slight, nothing but a few shingles of the roof about the chimney being destroyed.

THE NEW GAME LAW

Provisions of the Archer Bill Elucidated for Sportsmen.

Many questions have arisen among local sportsmen as to the provisions of the Archer game bill, now a law. The following may perhaps enlighten them somewhat obscure points.

The provision of the original bill for extending the open season for quail ten days was amended. The open season stands the same as last year, from November 10 to December 1. It also provides that any one person shall not kill in one day more than 18 quail, and in no case except when flying.

The season for shooting wild duck is fixed from September 15 to December 15 and from March 1 to April 20.

No sneak boat shall be used to pursue ducks. Woodcocks and squirrels may be killed between August 1 and September 1, and rabbits between November 10 and December 15.

Non-residents of Ohio must secure a license from the county clerk for which they must pay $25. The money accruing from such licenses goes to the State Fish and Game Commission.

The clause in the new law which relates to blue gill and bass fishing reads as follows:

"No person shall in any of the waters of the state, natural or artificial, take or catch in any manner any sunfish known as the blue gill, and common sunfish or black bass between May 1 and June 1 inclusive."

400 EXCURSIONISTS

Came From Wheeling to See the Sights of East Liverpool.

The steamer City of Wheeling landed at the city wharf Sunday at 4 p. m. with 400 excursionists aboard. The majority of them were from Wheeling and were members of the Beethoven Singing society. However, there were a few from intermediate points, and the crowd as a whole was made up of jolly, good people.

A string band furnished music of a superior class. At 5:30 o'clock the excursionists, having promenaded through and seen the sights of the city, the boat departed on its return trip. A small crowd of the city enjoyed the ride to Wellsville, returning on a street car.

During the same period, Winnie Mercer, who is pitching for the Detroit American league team played but two games. During that time he was at the bat 8 times, made 3 runs, 2 hits and had 7 assists. In Friday's game Mercer was in the box for the Detroit team, which lost to St. Louis. Although St. Louis made 10 hits off his delivery, he succeeded in holding the opposing team down to three runs.

Sights of East Liverpool.
Sunday.

The steamer City of Wheeling landed at the city wharf Sunday at 4 p. m. with 400 excursionists aboard. The majority of them were from Wheeling and were members of the Beethoven Singing society. However, there were a few from intermediate points, and the crowd as a whole was made up of jolly, good people.

A string band furnished music of a superior class. At 5:30 o'clock the excursionists, having promenade through and seen the sights of the city, the boat departed on its return trip. A small crowd of the city enjoyed the ride to Wellsville, returning on a street car.

GOOD EVIDENCE OF THE PROGRESS OF AERIAL NAVIGATION IS THE NUMBER OF BRIGHT MINDS NOW STUDYING THIS ALL IMPORTANT BRANCH OF APPLIED SCIENCE. SCIENTISTS ARE USUALLY ENDOWED WITH AN ENTHUSIASM WHICH DOES NOT OVERHEAT THE BRAIN. THAT THE MEDITERRANEAN CAN BE CROSSED TO AFRICA IN AN AIRSHIP IS QUITE CERTAIN. THAT THE TIME IS NEARLY AT HAND WHEN WE CAN MAKE A DESCENT UPON THE NORTH POLE IS EQUALLY CERTAIN. A LITTLE PATIENCE, A LITTLE PLUCK, A LITTLE MORE EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE WILL BRING US UP THERE. to Hang.

Pittsburg, May 12.—Mrs. Catherine Soffel was sentenced to two years to the Western Penitentiary Saturday for aiding and abetting the escape of the notorious Biddle boys from the county jail. She had entered a plea of guilty last Monday when called for trial.

Walter Dorman, who pleaded guilty to participation in the crimes of the Biddles, was sentenced to be hanged. The pardon board will probably commute his sentence to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Soffel was taken to the penitentiary almost immediately after being sentenced and is now a prisoner at that institution.

The whole northeastern portion of the island is laid waste. Three large communities exclusive of St. Pierre have been destroyed. "The corpses which are heaped in the ruins of St. Pierre are not only completely naked, but are frightfully mutilated."

The minister of marine, M. The captain reported that the town is now a mere heap of smoking ruins, under which the victims of the catastrophe are buried. The Suchet was able to convey some of the inhabitants of Le Precheur to Fort de France, but could not reach the northernmost part of the island on account of the dense rain of ashes.

The captain of the Suchet further reported that the Mont Pelee volcano had a threatening aspect Saturday evening. Subterranean rumblings were still heard, flashes of flame frequently belched from the volcano and stones were thrown out with immense force. A dispatch received at the colonial office here yesterday from Fort de France said there was no doubt that Governor Mouttet and the commander of the troops at St. Pierre, Colonel Dain, are dead.

French chamber of deputies who perished at St. Pierre were Mm. Percin and Le Clere.

The colonial minister has organized a relief distribution committee, consisting of himself and M. Decrais, former colonial minister, the colonial members of the chamber of deputies, the colonial senators and a number of commercial men. The first meeting of this committee will occur tomorrow.

The British ambassador, Sir Edmund J. Monson, called at the Elysee palace yesterday afternoon and communicated to President Loubet personally the sympathy of King Edward.

Further Details of the Disaster.

Fort de France, island of Martinique, May 12.—Advices received here yesterday from the vicinity of St. Pierre (10 miles from here) contain further details of the terrible volcanic upheaval which resulted in the utter destruction of that town and the death of nearly all its inhabitants.

The crater of Mont Pelee had been wearing its "smoke cap" since the 2d of May, but there was nothing until last Monday to indicate that there was the slightest danger. On that day a stream of boiling lava burst through the top of the crater and plunged into the valley of the river Blanche, overwhelming the Guerin sugar works and killing 23 work people, and the son of the proprietor.

A commission was appointed by the governor to investigate the outbreak and it returned a reassuring report on Wednesday evening. But about 8 o'clock on Thursday morning a shower of fire rushed down on St. Pierre, and the coast from Le Carbet, which had a population of 6,000, to Le Precheur, which had a population of 4,000, burning up everything in its path.

Heroic Work of French Cruiser.

Throughout Thursday the heat in the vicinity of St. Pierre was so intense and the stream of flowing lava was so unrelenting that it was almost impossible to approach the town during the early part of the day. As evening approached the French cruiser Suchet, after a heroic battle with the heat, suffocation and sulphur fumes, succeeded in making a dash toward the shore, nearing the land close enough to enable her to take off 30 survivors of the disaster, all of whom were horribly burned and mutilated.

St. Pierre at that time was an absolute, smoking waste, concealing 30,000 corpses, whose rapid decomposition necessitated in some cases, instantly completing their cremation, which was only partially accomplished by the lava.

The inhabitants of Fort de France were panic stricken the morning of the disaster, when the sky suddenly blackened until it was as dark as at midnight. The seas shrank back 30 yards, and hot rain began to fall, while gravel, the size of walnuts, poured down on the town. This lasted about 15 minutes.

Survivors Nearly Roasted to Death.

The 450 survivors who were brought here yesterday from the vicinity of St. Pierre by the French cable repair ship Puyeu Quartier came from the town of Le Precheur, where, surrounded on all sides by flowing lava, they were nearly roasted to death and expected momentarily to be engulfed.

The work of relief is progressing here on the most extensive scale possible, but in anticipation of disturbances the treasury building and the warehouses are guarded by troops.

The latest reports received here showed that lava continues to pour down the slopes of the mountain, slowly engulfing the whole north side of the island, while fresh crevasses are continually opening.

Bill Passed Senate Saturday—May Pass House Today—Warships Ordered to Martinique.

Washington, May 12.—The cruiser Cincinnati was ordered Saturday to proceed to Martinique without delay, investigate and report upon the situation and extend aid to the survivors. The ocean tug Potomac was probably on her way Saturday from the naval station at San Juan. The training ship Dixie was ordered to prepare for sea and she will be sent to Fort de France, should additional aid be required.

The action of the administration was endorsed and supplemented Saturday by the senate, which passed a bill offered by Mr. Fairbanks, appropriating $100,000 for the relief of the distressed at Martinique. This bill would have gone through the house with the same impressive promptness as in the senate had it not been for the objection of Representative Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama. Though sufficient official and unofficial information had been received showing the awfulness of the catastrophe, Mr. Underwood expressed the opinion that congress should await the receipt of "official details," and it will not now be possible for the house to act until today, when the measure will be taken up and passed.

The president is taking a special interest in the calamity, but the state department was unable to furnish him with any information. Consul Ayne, at Guadeloupe, suggested Friday that he be permitted to proceed to Martinique, and Secretary Hay cabled him permission Saturday morning. He is now on his way, having sailed on the French man-of-war Suchet, which is carrying supplies to the destitute of the devastated island. The department also has made inquiries of consuls at other points in Washington, May 12.—The state department received a cablegram yesterday from United States Consul Ayne at Guadeloupe, stating that he would leave for Martinique last night. The state department cabled Consul Ayne Saturday to proceed at once to Martinique and report upon the situation there, but it is thought at the department that its instructions had not yet reached him, and that, realizing the need of prompt action, he has gone to Martinique of his own volition.

break and it returned a reassuring report on Wednesday evening. But about 8 o'clock on Thursday morning a shower of fire rushed down on St.
Pierre, and the coast from Le Car-bet, which had a population of 6,000, to Le Precheur, which had a population of 4,000, burning up everything in its path.

Heroic Work of French Cruiser.

Throughout Thursday the heat in the vicinity of St. Pierre was so intense and the stream of flowing lava was so unremitting that it was almost impossible to approach the town during the early part of the day.
As evening approached the French cruiser Suchet, after a heroic battle with the heat, suffocation and sulphur fumes, succeeded in making a dash toward the shore, nearing the land close enough to enable her to take off 30 survivors of the disaster, all of whom were horribly burned and mutilated.

St. Pierre at that time was an absolute, smoking waste, concealing 30,000 corpses, whose rapid decomposition necessitated in some cases, instantly completing their cremation, which was only partially accomplished by the lava.

The inhabitants of Fort de France were panic stricken the morning of the disaster, when the sky suddenly blackened until it was as dark as at midnight. The seas shrank back 30 yards, and hot rain began to fall, while gravel, the size of walnuts, poured down on the town. This lasted about 15 minutes.

Survivors Nearly Roasted to Death.

The 450 survivors who were brought here yesterday from the vicinity of St. Pierre by the French cable repair ship Pouyer Guertier came from the town of Le Precheur, where, surrounded on all sides by flowing lava, they were nearly roasted to death and expected momentarily to be engulfed.

The work of relief is progressing here on the most extensive scale possible, but in anticipation of disturbances the treasury building and the warehouses are guarded by troops.

The latest reports received here showed that lava continues to pour down the slopes of the mountain, slowly engulfing the whole north side of the island, while fresh crevasses are continually opening.

$100,000 FOR THE DISTRESSED

Bill Passed Senate Saturday—May
Pass House Today—Warships
Ordered to Martinique.

Washington, May 12.—The cruiser Cincinnati was ordered Saturday to proceed to Martinique without delay, investigate and report upon the situation and extend aid to the survivors.
The ocean tug Potomac was probably on her way Saturday from the naval station at San Juan. The training ship Dixie was ordered to prepare for sea and she will be sent to Fort de France, should additional aid be required.

The action of the administration was indorsed and supplemented Saturday by the senate, which passed a bill offered by Mr. Fairbanks, appropriating $100,000 for the relief of the distressed at Martinique. This bill would have gone through the house with the same impressive promptness as in the senate had it not been for the objection of Representative Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama. Though sufficient official and unofficial information had been received showing the awfulness of the catastrophe, Mr.
Underwood expressed the opinion that congress should await the receipt of "official details," and it will not now be possible for the house to act until today, when the measure will be taken up and passed.

The president is taking a special interest in the calamity, but the state department was unable to furnish him with any information. Consul Ayme, at Guadeloupe, suggested Friday that he be permitted to proceed to Martinique, and Secretary Hay cabled him permission Saturday morning. He is now on his way, having sailed on the French man-of-war Suchet, which is carrying supplies to the destitute of the devastated island.
The department also has made inquiries of consuls at other points in Washington, May 12.—The state department received a cablegram yesterday from United States Consul Ayme at Guadeloupe, stating that he would leave for Martinique last night.

The state department cabled Consul Ayme Saturday to proceed at once to Martinique and report upon the situation there, but it is thought at the department that its instructions had not yet reached him, and that, realizing the need of prompt action,
he has gone to Martinique of his own

By the time this reaches the eye of the reader the seventy-fifth general assembly of Ohio will probably have finished its work, unless, as now seems unlikely, it should be called together in special session. It has been a very industrious body, having enacted a great deal of legislation and discussed and defeated a great deal more. Probably no legislature ever got through with its work without allowing some bills to pass that had been left alone, and it will be strange if the present body has been an exception to this rule. Time will tell, and if mistakes have been made they can speedily be remedied. Many meritorious measures have been made into law, while others, equally meritorious and equally important, have been defeated for various causes. Most important of all the bills passed have been those relating to taxation. The Republican party stood pledged to enact laws which would result in a more equitable distribution of tax burdens, and it is to be hoped it will be found, when the new laws have been tested, that good progress has been made in that direction. Certainly the assurance is welcome that the state's revenues will be increased millions and that in consequence a reduction in the state levy, benefiting all owners of real and personal property, is to ensue. An important new law is that allowing bonds to be issued by cities and towns without special acts of the legislature. The failure to pass any laws regulating the conduct of primary elections or to enact a uniform code for the government of Ohio cities is certainly to be regretted. But then, one legislature cannot do everything. The present general assembly, all things considered, has made a good record. The Columbiana county legislators, who have displayed much ability and good sense, are to be congratulated on the success which has attended their efforts to promote the welfare of local interests and deserve the thanks of their constituents for their faithfulness.

Movements are already in progress for the raising of funds for the relief of the suffering sufferers of the Martinique disaster. The latest reports only add to the horrors and show that there are thousands who fled from the destroyed towns for whom immediate assistance is imperative unless they are to die of starvation—a death infinitely more terrible even than that wrought by the lava's flood. The civilized world will doubtless see that everything possible is done that the stricken people may escape that fate.

Tales of revolting cruelty come from the girls' industrial home at Delaware, an institution which the state supports and pays liberally. If the charges are true, there cannot be too sudden or too complete a change in the management of the home. Inhumanity in a school which is founded for humane purposes is intolerable. It is no wonder that a wave of indignation has swept over the state. Let the truth come out, and then make the guilty suffer.

It is a pathetic story that comes from Wooster. A Methodist minister, who had labored faithfully for the welfare of various congregations for 50 years, but had become too old to labor longer, was overtaken by disease and poverty and died in the county infirmary. Query: Were all the congregations he had served Christians, or were they unaware of his condition?

The legislators who have allowed themselves to be gold-bricked into passing a bill relieving the railroads of the necessity of maintaining lights at city grade crossings won't receive a vote of thanks from the East Liverpool council, though they may from the Pennsylvania railroad.

ALL NON-RESIDENTS

Were the Three Offenders Arrested By the Police Saturday Night.

Had visitors given the city a wide berth on Saturday night and Sunday the police force would practically enjoy a two days' vacation, as not a single resident was placed in the toils. Three men, Frank Merritt, of Rochester, arrested by Officer Dunn; Robert Cargo, of Pittsburgh, arrested by Officer Mahoney, and Joe McLaughlin, of Chester, by Officer McDermott, constituted the Monday morning lineup before the mayor.

Each pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly, and paid or made arrangements for a fine of $6.60.

Hospital Meetings.

The hospital committees will meet tomorrow evening at the usual hour and place. At seven o'clock the committee appointed for arranging the supper will meet to perfect plans for that event, while an hour later the hospital board will meet with the association. All members are urged to be present as very important business is to be transacted.

POTTERY NEWS

The impression seems to prevail among the manufacturing potters of Trenton that the much-talked-of pottery combination in the west is all talk, and that it is not only impracticable, but if accomplished would lead to no good results. A prominent Trenton manufacturer has said: "I was talking a few days ago with one of the biggest East Liverpool potters, and he said he had heard rumors of the proposed combination of western manufacturers. But he said his firm had not been approached in the matter."

The same man said that such a combination would only have the effect of compelling both the eastern and western potters to confine themselves to their own territory. If the western people tried to get into the eastern territory, or vice versa, he said there would be trouble. Charles Howell Cook, when asked about the combine said he had heard nothing of it except what he had seen in the newspapers.

George J. Bradshaw, manager of the Florentine pottery, Chillicothe, died May 2, aged 66. Mr. Bradshaw was born at Hanley, England, and while yet very young entered one of the largest establishments at Staffordshire. He was first employed in this country at the Eagle pottery in Trenton, and then came to East Liverpool to take the management of the Laughlin pottery. In 1887 he took charge of the Warwick China company's plant at Wheeling, and then went to Findlay, where he managed the Bell pottery. He went from there to Zanesville, where he superintended the art department of the Weller pottery.

Operative potters all over this section are looking forward with pleasure to the annual outing which will be held at Rock Springs park early next month. Advertising matter has been distributed in each city where a pottery is located, and from the talk heard, there is sure to be a larger gathering of operatives in the city on the occasion than ever before.

About one-third of the foundation of the new pottery which is to be built at Salineville is completed. There is a scarcity of labor at that town, and the building operations are being held back on this account. The stonemasons are now at work on the job.

J. Wheatley, formerly manager of the decorating department at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery, has resigned his position at that plant, and is now managing the decorating department of the New Castle factory.

Akron and Steubenville have a howling crowd of rooters at the Brotherhood convention for the honor of entertaining the next convention, and each city is making a fine race, with Akron so far a shade to the good.

J. C. Deans, of the McNicol traveling force, who has been home but a short time from an extensive eastern trip, has again left for the west. He has received some very large orders of late.

William Devon, of Thompson avenue, fireman at the D. E. McNicol pottery, who has been seriously ill at his home for several days, is rapidly recovering, and will be about in a short time.

Some of the operatives who have returned from New Castle say that they had a funny experience there, and declare they do not want any more of it, and were glad to get home to Trenton.

W. E. Graves, a buyer from Birmingham, Ala., was in the city on Friday and Saturday. During his stay here he placed several large orders for immediate delivery.

Township Trustee's Report Shows Only $55 Expended for Poor in April.

The report of Township Trustee Albright for the month of April shows that $55.22 was expended from the township treasury for the maintaining of the poor and that $59.95 was expended from the county poor fund. The latter fund would have been drawn on more heavily had not warehousemen's local paid $25 on the bill incident to the prolonged sickness of Harry Woods, a member of the local.

A material decrease is noticeable in the report compared with those of the winter months, January and February, showing nearly $100 expended from township treasury.

One of the odd things the visitor to Burma will notice is the large number of bells about the pagodas. These bells are usually hung on sacred posts a few feet above the ground.

They are sweet toned, as all Burmese bells are, but they are not furnished with tongues. The worshiper who comes to pray before the pagoda strikes one of these bells with a wooden mallet. This is to attract the attention of the god.

By the time this reaches the eye of the reader the seventy-fifth general assembly of Ohio will probably have finished its work, unless, as now seems unlikely, it should be called together in special session. It has been a very industrious body, having enacted a great deal of legislation and discussed and defeated a great deal more. Probably no legislature ever got through with its work without allowing some bills to pass that had best been left alone, and it will be strange if the present body has been an exception to this rule. Time will tell, and if mistakes have been made they can speedily be remedied. Many meritorious measures have been made into law, while others, equally meritorious and equally important, have been defeated for various causes. Most important of all the bills passed have been those relating to taxation. The Republican party stood pledged to enact laws which would result in a more equitable distribution of tax burdens, and it is to be hoped it will be found, when the new laws have been tested, that good progress has been made in that direction. Certainly the assurance is welcome that the state's revenues will be increased millions and that in consequence a reduction in the state levy, benefiting all owners of real and personal property, is to ensue. An important new law is that allowing bonds to be issued by cities and towns without special acts of the legislature. The failure to pass any laws regulating the conduct of primary elections or to enact a uniform code for the government of Ohio cities is certainly to be regretted. But then, one legislature cannot do everything. The present general assembly, all things considered, has made a good record. The Columbiana county legislators, who have displayed much ability and good sense, are to be congratulated on the success which has attended their efforts to promote the welfare of local interests and deserve the thanks of their constituents for their faithfulness.

Movements are already in progress for the raising of funds for the relief of the surviving sufferers of the Martinique disaster. The latest reports only add to the horrors and show that there are thousands who fled from the destroyed towns for whom immediate assistance is imperative unless they are to die of starvation—a death infinitely more terrible even than that wrought by the lava's flood. The civilized world will doubtless see that everything possible is done that the stricken people may escape that fate.

Tales of revolting cruelty come from the girls' industrial home at Delaware, an institution which the state supports and pays liberally. If the charges are true, there cannot be too sudden or too complete a change in the management of the home. Inhumanity in a school which is founded for humane purposes is intolerable. It is no wonder that a wave of indignation has swept over the state. Let the truth come out, and then make the guilty suffer.

It is a pathetic story that comes from Wooster. A Methodist minister, who had labored faithfully for the welfare of various congregations for 50 years, but had become too old to labor longer, was overtaken by disease and poverty and died in the county infirmary. Query: Were all the congregations he had served Christians, or were they unaware of his condition?

The legislators who have allowed themselves to be gold-bricked into passing a bill relieving the railroads of the necessity of maintaining lights at city grade crossings won't receive a vote of thanks from the East Liverpool council, though they may from the Pennsylvania railroad.

Nations differ, if names don't. Silver came near proving fatal to William Jennings Bryan Phipps, of Indiana. He got a silver thimble in his throat. The man for whom he was named has had silver in his head as well as in his throat for many years and rather likes it.

Who says that women are not able to meet the requirements of higher education? In the Chicago university the girls are knocking each other senseless at basket ball games.

Mrs. Hettie Green has been granted a permit to carry a pistol to protect herself and her money. Carnegie proposes to get rid of his money so he won't need a pistol.

Senator Money talked to his colleagues the other day about the need of politeness and moderation in debate. Somebody ought to talk to him about good manners in a street car.

The Cubans, in rejoicing over the hoisting of the flag of Cuba Libre over Morro castle should not forget whose help enabled them to put it there.

For a man who is not an aspirant for office of publicity, William J. Bryan is doing a deal of talking.

The season of drought promises to set in early over in East Palestine.

ALL NON-RESIDENTS

Were the Three Offenders Arrested By the Police Saturday Night.

Had visitors given the city a wide berth on Saturday night and Sunday the police force would practically enjoy a two days' vacation, as not a single resident was placed in the toils. Three men, Frank Merritt, of Rochester, arrested by Officer Dunn; Robert Cargo, of Pittsburg, arrested by Officer Mahoney, and Joe McLaughlin, of Chester, by Officer McDermott, constituted the Monday morning lineup before the mayor.

Each pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly, and paid or made arrangements for a fine of $6.60.

Hospital Meetings.

The hospital committees will meet tomorrow evening at the usual hour and place. At seven o'clock the committee appointed for arranging the supper will meet to perfect plans for that event, while an hour later the hospital board will meet with the association. All members are urged to be present as very important business is to be transacted.

POTTERY NEWS

The impression seems to prevail among the manufacturing potters of Trenton that the much-talked-of pottery combination in the west is all talk, and that it is not only impracticable, but if accomplished would lead to no good results. A prominent Trenton manufacturer has said: "I was talking a few days ago with one of the biggest East Liverpool potters, and he said he had heard rumors of the proposed combination of western manufacturers. But he said his firm had not been approached in the matter."

The same man said that such a combination would only have the effect of compelling both the eastern and western potteries to confine themselves to their own territory. If the western people tried to get into the eastern territory, or vice versa, he said there would be trouble. Charles Howell Cook, when asked about the combine said he had heard nothing of it except what he had seen in the newspapers.

George J. Bradshaw, manager of the Florentine pottery, Chillicothe, died May 2, aged 66. Mr. Bradshaw was born at Hanley, England, and while yet very young entered one of the largest establishments at Staffordshire. He was first employed in this country at the Eagle pottery in Trenton, and then came to East Liverpool to take the management of the Laughlin pottery. In 1887 he took charge of the Warwick China company's plant at Wheeling, and then went to Findlay, where he managed the Bell pottery. He went from there to Zanesville, where he superintended the art department of the Weller pottery.

Operative potters all over this section are looking forward with pleasure to the annual outing which will be held at Rock Springs park early next month. Advertising matter has been distributed in each city where a pottery is located, and from the talk heard, there is sure to be a larger gathering of operatives in the city on the occasion than ever before.

About one-third of the foundation of the new pottery which is to be built at Salineville is completed. There is a scarcity of labor at that town, and the building operations are being held back on this account. The stonemasons are now at work on the job.

J. Wheatley, formerly manager of the decorating department at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery, has resigned his position at that plant, and is now managing the decorating department of the New Castle factory.

Akron and Steubenville have a howling crowd of rooters at the Brotherhood convention for the honor of entertaining the next convention, and each city is making a fine race, with Akron so far a shade to the good.

Ralph Alcock, a printer at the Dresden, who has been suffering with rheumatism for several months, left Sunday for Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he will remain for some time. He was accompanied by his wife.

J. C. Deans, of the McNicol traveling force, who has been home but a short time from an extensive eastern trip, has again left for the west. He has received some very large orders of late.

William Devon, of Thompson avenue, fireman at the D. E. McNicol pottery, who has been seriously ill at his home for several days, is rapidly recovering, and will be about in a short time.

Some of the operatives who have returned from New Castle say that they had a funny experience there, and declare they do not want any more of it, and were glad to get home to Trenton.

W. E. Graves, a buyer from Birmingham, Ala., was in the city on Friday and Saturday. During his stay here he placed several large orders for immediate delivery.

F. D. Dodd, designer of the J. B. Owens pottery at Zanesville, has re-

Dick Cannon, a turner at Burford's, has resigned his position. He was succeeded by R. Smith, who until recently was employed at the Diamond.

Miss Ethel Burrows, of this city, has gone to Lisbon where she has taken a position as transferer at the Thomas China company.

The Smith-Phillips company is on the last quarter of its first year, and from present indications will complete the year satisfactorily.

Jack Mountford, of New Castle, who has been visiting friends here for a few days, has returned to his home.

Andrew Hughes is the name of a new turner at the National. He commenced work last week.

Harry Dickey, of Wellsville, has gone to Ford City, Pa., where he will operate a jigger.

Clement Ludwig, formerly a turner at Laughlin No. 2, is now located at the Union.

Alfred Beach, a dipper at Brunt's, is unable to work on account of illness.

Township Trustee's Report Shows Only $55 Expended for Poor in April.

The report of Township Trustee Albright for the month of April shows that $55.22 was expended from the township treasury for the maintaining of the poor and that $59.95 was expended from the county poor fund. The latter fund would have been drawn on more heavily had not warehousemen's local paid $25 on the bill incident to the prolonged sickness of Harry Woods, a member of the local.

A material decrease is noticeable in the report compared with those of the winter months, January and February, showing nearly $100 expended from township treasury.

One of the odd things the visitor to Burma will notice is the large number of bells about the pagodas. These bells are usually hung on sacred posts a few feet above the ground.

They are sweet toned, as all Burmese bells are, but they are not furnished with tongues. The worshiper who comes to pray before the pagoda strikes one of these bells with a wooden mallet. This is to attract the attention of the god.

MRS. PRELORENZO FINED

Compelled to Pay $16.60 for the Alleged Assault on Her Husband.

Referring to the recent trouble between Nicholas Prelorenzo and his wife last Monday morning in which, it is stated, Prelorenzo, was knocked out in the first round, his wife, having wielded a chair rung upon his cranium a few times, the matter has now been disposed of in the mayor's court.

Mrs. Prelorenzo, it will be remembered, was placed under arrest at the time and released on bond. A hearing in the case has been heard before Mayor Fogo and Mrs. Prelorenzo was fined $18.60, which she paid.

Since the fracas of last Monday evening she has declared several times over that as soon as she was given a hearing she would leave her husband and return to her home, but she probably thought better of this as no such step has as yet been taken and everything is peace and quiet at the Prelorenzo home.

THE STRIKE STILL ON

Many of the Carroll-Porter Men Are Finding Work Elsewhere.

No settlement has as yet been reached in the Carroll-Porter boiler works strike. As far as the management is concerned no new terms will be offered. A large number of the men who are out have left the town, several having gone to Pittsburgh and not a few to Wheeling. Most of those who have not left have returned to work at the same hours and wages as heretofore, so that but very few are now waiting until their demands are granted.

WIFE-BEATING CHARGED

Against Harry Fogo, Who Was Arrested at Her Home Sunday.

Harry Fogo was arrested on Sunday evening by Officer Thorn for raising a disturbance at his home. Fogo had been drinking earlier in the evening and when he returned to his residence, started a quarrel with his wife and as a result, it is said, that he beat her unmercifully. He will appear before Mayor Fogo today.

SOURCES OF KNOWLEDGE.

You May Learn Something From Everybody You Meet.

One of the most useful success habits one can form is that of learning something from everybody with whom he comes in contact. No information which can be acquired is too trivial to be ignored.

Constantly measure yourself with the men you meet. You will find that every one can teach you something which you did not know before and which, perhaps, you would never have a chance to learn again if you did not acquire it from him.

Daniel Webster once made a great hit in arguing a case before a jury by repeating a story which he afterward said he had not thought of since he heard it fourteen years before. But Webster was always picking up something for future use. His famous reply to Hayne, the greatest speech ever delivered on the American continent, was largely made up of little reserves which he had picked up here and there in his reading, from studying men and from observation.

Many a prominent novelist has collected material for his stories by making notes of his conversations with those he has met and by observation. Charles Dickens got a great deal of the matter for some of his novels in this way.

One young man will go to a lecture and after spending an hour listening to the helpful, inspiring words of some prominent man will leave the hall or lecture room without having derived any benefit from the address. Another young man will attend the same lecture with an ambition to learn something. He will drink in the speaker's sentences as if he were never to hear such words of encouragement and inspiration again. At the conclusion of the address he will determine that he will make more of his opportunities in the future; that he will read more, think more, study more, be more than he ever was before. Such a young man has a purpose and is determined to learn something from everything he comes in contact with and from everybody he talks to. The other has no ambition, does not throw himself into what he does, lets his mind wander hither and thither, so that he never wholly understands what people are saying and therefore never derives any benefit or information from those with whom he converses.—Orison Swett Marden in Success.

Swallowing Abilities of Snakes.

The jaws of the chicken snake, says a Texan, are hung on hinges that can be taken apart or displaced for the time being, as the case may be, and an entire Texas cottontail rabbit can be persuaded to enter, head and all, with little effort, and the body, being made of India rubberlike material and very stretchable, the kicking little animal soon finds a lodgment in the stomach. His snakeship then carefully resects his jaws so that his mouth assumes its normal size and blissfully reposes for the succeeding six hours. The powerful gastric juice does the balance, and no Texan can testify that he ever heard a chicken snake suffering from indigestion or chronic dyspepsia. The capture and digestion of chickens, song birds, turkey eggs and rats constitute simple pastime to the chicken snake and do not call for a six hour layoff in feeding time.

A Remarkable Sentence.

The Latin sentence, "Sator arepo tenet opera rotas," which is, it must be admitted, pretty bad Latin, is a curiosity nevertheless. It can be freely translated as "I cease from my work; the sower will wear away his wheels." Its fine oddities are these:

It spells the same backward as forward.

The first letter of each word spells the first word.

The same may be said of the second, third, fourth and fifth letters.

The last letters, read backward, spell the first word, the next to the last the second word, and so on throughout.

"Oh, splendid, incomparable. She lets absolutely nothing drive business out of her head. Why, just before Harold started for Europe he proposed to her by letter and asked her to telegraph her answer."

"Well?"

"Well, most people would have telegraphed 'Yes' or 'No,' but she had enough of a business head to wire, 'It affords me great pleasure to say yes to you,' thus preventing the telegraph company from getting any advantage of her in charging for a ten word message."—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Corn Cure.

To cure corns get a little gutta percha tissue from a druggist, cut it into strips and then wind a piece round the corn, which must first be moistened with oil. See that the edges of the tissue are as even as possible, and when you have wound it round wet the inside of the end with spirits of turpentine. This will cause it to stick firmly if you press it down. With a feather dipped in turpentine touch the edges of the tissue, and they will unite. Leave for four days, then take off the dressing, and you will be able to remove the corn with the back of a penknife.

The Railroad the Key to the Trust Riddle

By MARTIN A. KNAPP, Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission

NO BODY OF MEN CAN ACQUIRE $100,000,000 IN A SCORE OF YEARS WITHOUT GROSSLY DEFRAUDING THEIR FELLOWS BY SECURING RATES AND FACILITIES FOR PUBLIC CARRIAGE OF WHICH OTHERS ARE DEPRIVED. That is the sleight of hand by which the marvel is produced, the key to the riddle which has alarmed the nations.

RAILROADS ENGAGED IN PUBLIC SERVICE ARE ONLY PURVEYORS OF THE PUBLIC PRIVILEGE, AND LARGE SHIPPERS ARE ENTITLED TO NO SMALLER RATES FOR THEIR COMMODITIES THAN IS THE SMALLER SHIPPER IN THE SAME LINE.

No service which the government undertakes can be more useful and no duty which rests upon it is more imperative than to secure for the public always and everywhere equal treatment by every railway carrier. WHEN THE NATURAL ADVANTAGES OF CAPITAL ARE AUGMENTED BY ARBITRARY DEDUCTIONS FROM CHARGES COMMONLY IMPOSED, THE COMBINATION IS POWERFUL ENOUGH TO FORCE ALL RIVALS FROM THE FIELD. Production is controlled, wages are fixed, prices raised to the desired profit, monopoly reigns.

Deprived of special and exclusive rates, an advantage far greater and more odious than exemption from taxation, these trusts would be shorn of their advantages and divested of their principal danger.

WHAT MOVED THE DOG?

A Remarkable Story of Canine Intelligence and Affection.

Among the tales told of the intelligence and affection of our canine friends by Mrs. Sarah K. Bolton in her book, "Our Devoted Friend, the Dog," is the story of Dan, a deerhound owned by Mr. L. C. Meachamp of Homer, La.

Mr. Meachamp was one day going on a squirrel hunt and, not wishing Dan to accompany him, tied the dog to a post by a rope. Dan whined and begged, but finding his master obdurate he at last lay down quietly before his kennel.

It was growing dusk and time for the hunter to return, when Mrs. Meachamp was suddenly disturbed by the whining and barking of the dog, who had been quiet all day up to that time. She spoke to the dog, but instead of being pacified at this attention he redoubled his exertions and broke the rope which held him. Then he bounded away, over the fence and into the woods.

He was gone perhaps half an hour when he came running back, panting and almost breathless, with his master's hat in his mouth.

Mrs. Meachamp became at once alarmed, and, calling her son, they set off to find the missing man, Dan all the time bounding ahead and leading the way. At length they came upon Mr. Meachamp lying helpless in the woods, where he had fallen into a little ditch and broken his leg.

The accident happened, as nearly as could be reckoned, at the moment when the dog began to show his uneasiness. That he should have had knowledge of the accident seems incredible, but his master firmly believes that he did know it and that it was because he knew it that he was so anxious to get away.

CITIES HARD TO KILL.

What Rome, Paris, Constantinople and London Have Suffered.

It is a difficult thing to kill a city, and there are some well known places that have so much vitality that they will survive any number of disasters.

Take Rome as a first example. No fewer than ten times has she been swept by pestilence. She has been burned twice and starved out on six occasions. Seven times she has been besieged or bombarded. But she still flourishes. Perhaps that is why she is called the Eternal City.

Paris has had eight sieges, ten famines, two plagues and one fire which devastated it. We make no reference to the number of revolutions, as they are too numerous to mention. But Paris is still flourishing.

Constantinople has been burned out nine times and has suffered from four plagues and five sieges. There are some people who think that many of the sultans have been as bad for the city as any pestilence. And yet she goes on.

Lastly there is the English metropolis. London began as a kind of mound in a swamp. In her early history she was sacked, burned and all her inhabitants butchered. She has been decimated by plague five times, exclusive of typhus, cholera and such maladies. She has been more or less burned seven times. She is thriving in spite of all.

Reason For the Hit.

"Was Mrs. Gabbot's 'conversazione' a success?"

"Decidedly. Everybody clapped at a great rate."

"How did she ever manage it?"

"Oh, she had a musical programme, you know, that lasted all through."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

WELLSVILLE

Compelled to Pay $16.60 for the Alleged Assault on Her Husband.

Referring to the recent trouble between Nicholas Prelorenzo and his wife last Monday morning in which, it is stated, Prelorenzo, was knocked out in the first round, his wife, having wielded a chair rung upon his cranium a few times, the matter has now been disposed of in the mayor's court.

Mrs. Prelorenzo, it will be remembered, was placed under arrest at the time and released on bond. A hearing in the case has been heard before Mayor Fogo and Mrs. Prelorenzo was fined $16.60, which she paid.

Since the fracas of last Monday evening she has declared several times over that as soon as she was given a hearing she would leave her husband and return to her home, but she probably thought better of this as no such step has as yet been taken and everything is peace and quiet at the Prelorenzo home.

THE STRIKE STILL ON

Many of the Carroll-Porter Men Are Finding Work Elsewhere.

No settlement has as yet been reached in the Carroll-Porter boiler works strike. As far as the management is concerned no new terms will be offered. A large number of the men who are out have left the town, several having gone to Pittsburgh and not a few to Wheeling. Most of those who have not left have returned to work at the same hours and wages as heretofore, so that but very few are now waiting until their demands are granted.

WIFE-BEATING CHARGED

Against Harry Fogo, Who Was Arrested at Her Home Sunday.

Harry Fogo was arrested on Sunday evening by Officer Thorn for raising a disturbance at his home. Fogo had been drinking earlier in the evening and when he returned to his residence, started a quarrel with his wife and as a result, it is said, that he beat her unmercifully. He will appear before Mayor Fogo today.

Services Largely Attended.

The pulpit at the First Presbyterian church was occupied yesterday, both morning and evening, by Rev. R. H. Hartley, D. D., of La Porte, Ind., who is now visiting the pastor, Rev. L. H. Lavery. The church was well crowded at both services. No special music was rendered.

SOURCES OF KNOWLEDGE.

You May Learn Something From Everybody You Meet.

One of the most useful success habits one can form is that of learning something from everybody with whom he comes in contact. No information which can be acquired is too trivial to be ignored.

Constantly measure yourself with the men you meet. You will find that every one can teach you something which you did not know before and which, perhaps, you would never have a chance to learn again if you did not acquire it from him.

Daniel Webster once made a great hit in arguing a case before a jury by repeating a story which he afterward said he had not thought of since he heard it fourteen years before. But Webster was always picking up something for future use. His famous reply to Hayne, the greatest speech ever delivered on the American continent, was largely made up of little reserves which he had picked up here and there in his reading, from studying men and from observation.

Many a prominent novelist has collected material for his stories by making notes of his conversations with those he has met and by observation. Charles Dickens got a great deal of the matter for some of his novels in this way.

One young man will go to a lecture and after spending an hour listening to the helpful, inspiring words of some prominent man will leave the hall or lecture room without having derived any benefit from the address. Another young man will attend the same lecture with an ambition to learn something. He will drink in the speaker's sentences as if he were never to hear such words of encouragement and inspiration again. At the conclusion of the address he will determine that he will make more of his opportunities in the future; that he will read more, think more, study more, be more than he ever was before. Such a young man has a purpose and is determined to learn something from everything he comes in contact with and from everybody he talks to. The other has no ambition, does not throw himself into what he does, lets his mind wander hither and thither, so that he never wholly understands what people are saying and therefore never derives any benefit or information from those with whom he converses.—Orison Swett Marden in Success.

What Rome, Paris, Constantinople and London Have Suffered.

It is a difficult thing to kill a city, and there are some well known places that have so much vitality that they will survive any number of disasters.

Take Rome as a first example. No fewer than ten times has she been swept by pestilence. She has been burned twice and starved out on six occasions. Seven times she has been besieged or bombarded. But she still flourishes. Perhaps that is why she is called the Eternal City.

Paris has had eight sieges, ten famines, two plagues and one fire which devastated it. We make no reference to the number of revolutions, as they are too numerous to mention. But Paris is still flourishing.

Constantinople has been burned out nine times and has suffered from four plagues and five sieges. There are some people who think that many of the sultans have been as bad for the city as any pestilence. And yet she goes on.

Lastly there is the English metropolis. London began as a kind of mound in a swamp. In her early history she was sacked, burned and all her inhabitants butchered. She has been decimated by plague five times, exclusive of typhus, cholera and such maladies. She has been more or less burned seven times. She is thriving in spite of all.

Reason For the Hit.

"Was Mrs. Gabbot's 'conversazione' a success?"

"Decidedly. Everybody clapped at a great rate."

"How did she ever manage it?"

"Oh, she had a musical programme, you know, that lasted all through."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

CANTON MARINES AGAIN VICTORIOUS

Defeated the Locals For the Second Time After a Hard Struggle.

LARGE CROWD A GAME

Overcoats Were Worn And Many Suffered From Cold—Scene Like That of a Gathering of a Foot Ball Game. Features of the Game.

By winning the game Saturday afternoon in West End park from the locals the Canton Marines were enabled to leave for their homes with two scalps out of a possible three. However, during their experience as ball players they stated that they were never before against a tougher proposition than in the last two games. On Friday they had the game won in the ninth inning and then had to go away back, due to an awful effort of the locals. On Saturday they were beaten almost beyond a possible chance for recovery until the seventh, when by a vigorous spurt they tore away and won in the ninth, after a most desperate struggle. Said Manager Walsh: "With the game in our hands, every man playing a pretty game, it was indeed hard to give up."

Quite a crowd, numbering probably 500, witnessed the game notwithstanding that the air was cold and raw. From the general appearance of the spectators, many of them wearing their heavy winter overcoats and scores shivering from the effects of the cold, the scene looked like a gathering at a foot ball game.

A howl of disappointment came from the fans when they missed the appearance of Godwin at short. Many attended only to see him at his old position and were sorely put out when they learned that he had gone to Rochester to play in the opening game against a team from Pittsburg. Contentment and satisfaction, however, was soon displayed when they discovered that Tommy Boyle had been placed as his substitute. The Pittsburgher most certainly acquitted himself in great style. His run to right field, capturing a high fly, and his jump past second when he got his man at first after considerable juggling.

brought forth wild cheers of admiration.

Throughout the game a total of only five errors was made and three of them were excusable. The players state that the majority of errors made on the local grounds are due to the condition of the field. The diamond is as hard as stone, while the outfield is almost impassable, owing to the scattering of clods of dirt.

The visitors started the exciting contest with Berry and Maag out on three strikes, a single by Whitnight, who was left on first by Talbert going out on a fly to middle. Had it not been for the error made by Maag on McCarron's grounder the locals would have followed in order. As it was, Heckathorn, the next man up, put the side out on a fly, neither team scoring. In the second and until the sixth the Marines went out with only three at the bat each inning. The locals fared better, scoring a run in the second and one in the fifth, but after that they were powerless, not being credited with a single score. Following the run in the sixth, the visitors fixed the result in the seventh. Pozell, Reilly and Miller each got a hit and eventually scored on an error by Davis and several other misplays. In the eighth they were satisfied with a hit and in the ninth pounded out a two-bagger and a single. Sperry scoring and incidentally ending the game with the score standing 5 to 2 in their favor.

Davis at third has few equals. He always knows when to throw the ball to first, which fact he well demonstrated in the seventh inning. Black was up and grounded to him. Pozell started home at the same time that Black started for first. Then was when Davis showed his superiority by throwing to first instead of home, where he could have stopped Pozell's run. Davis was complimented highly for the play.

Webb badly crippled himself in the second and went to the bench. Kelly, of a Pittsburg team, was substituted and filled the place admirably. He got a putout and two assists, which together with other plays, will result in his being signed.

GOD GUIDE MINERS.

Prayer Bishop Hoban Asked Catholics In Scranton Diocese to Pray.

ALSO THAT TROUBLE BE SETTLED

Some of the Operators Decide Not to Try to Operate—Strike Already Caused Laying Off Number of Railroaders and Shop Men.

Scranton, Pa., May 12.—At the 9 o'clock mass in the cathedral Sunday morning Bishop Hoban asked the congregation to pray that the miners should be given light to do what is for the best and that something will intervene to insure a cessation of the conflict.

There will be no coal mined in the Scranton end of the anthracite region today. Even though the strike order was not certain of being religiously obeyed there would be no mining, as the companies agreed at a meeting of the general managers and superintendents Saturday that no attempt would be made to operate. Some of the companies, however, propose to keep a few, at least, of their washeries running, to insure a supply of culm for locomotives, hoisting engines and the like.

The strike has already made itself seriously felt in other lines of work. The railroads have laid off four-fifths of their coal train crews, in all about 800 men, and the Erie shops at Dunmore, where mine cars and machinery are repaired, have been shut down indefinitely, beginning today, throwing 300 men out of employment.

Best Element Opposed to Striking.
Meetings of all the locals will be held today to elect and instruct the delegates to the Hazleton convention. The sentiment among the more thoughtful and intelligent miners is opposed to a continuance of the strike.

Hazleton, Pa., May 12.—Coxe Bros. & Co., operating the Beaver Meadow colliery, and Calvin Pardee, Sons & Co., owners of the Lattimer mines, Saturday night notified their employees that they need not report for work until ordered to do so. This order does not apply to engineers, firemen and pump runners, whose services are necessary to keep the mines free from water. These companies, it is believed, expect a long struggle. The Lehigh Valley Coal company announced yesterday that it will give employment to all men who report for work today.

Meetings of the United Mine Workers' locals were held in most of the mining villages in the Hazleton district yesterday and delegates were elected to the coming convention. It was impossible to ascertain the attitude of the locals on the strike question.

11-YEAR OLD BOY SUICIDES.

He Accidentally Shot a Companion, Who, It Was Believed, Will Recover.

Somerset, Pa., May 12.—Deweese McKelvey, aged 11 years, a son of one of the most prominent families of Somerset, lies dead at his home and another boy named Bricker, aged 15, is seriously injured as the result of a tragedy which occurred here at 7:30 last evening.

The two boys were out with a Flobert rifle, shooting at birds and other objects. McKelvey had the gun and in some way it was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking young Bricker in the mouth, plunging its way clear through the neck and coming out at the back of the neck. McKelvey, seeing this, ran to his home. He hastened upstairs with the gun, placed the muzzle to his forehead, and discharged the weapon. He was found lying on the floor, the gun beside him. Physicians were quickly summoned, but at 9 o'clock he died. While Bricker's wound is serious it will probably not prove fatal.

WHEN WILL THEY VOTE?

Senators of Different Opinion, as to the Philippine Government Measure.

Washington, May 12.—Senator Rawlins, senior Democratic member of the senate committee on the Philippines, yesterday expressed the opinion that a vote could be reached on the Philippine government bill towards the end of the present week. Other members of the committee think the date of the vote may be postponed until some time next week, but none of them place the vote later than the 24th inst., two weeks hence. They say that whenever the debate is exhausted they will agree to vote, but that they object to naming a day for a vote until they are quite certain that there is nothing more to say pertinent to the subject.

Probable Work For the Week.
The consideration of the bill this week will be interspersed with the consideration of appropriation bills, today being set apart for the fortification bill and tomorrow for the agricultural appropriation bill. Neither of these measures will consume a great deal of time, and on each day it is expected there will be time left for the consideration of the Philippine bill. Senator Foraker has given notice of a speech on the Philippine subject today and Senator Stewart will speak tomorrow, both in support of the pending bill. Senator Spooner also probably will be heard on the bill. Near the end of the week among the opponents of the bill still to be heard are Senators Clay and Money. It is probable that considerable debate will grow out of the speeches of Senators Foraker and Spooner. Senator Lodge has given notice that on Tuesday he will move to meet at 11 o'clock each day to facilitate consideration of the Philippine bill.

Forecast of the House.

Washington, May 12.—Today is District of Columbia day in the house. Special orders have been made for the consideration of several bills to follow the disposition of District business. They include the bill to authorize the issue of passports to residents of our insular possessions; the Adams bill for the reorganization of the consular service and a day for the consideration of war claims. The conference report on the omnibus bill will also be considered this week. Such time as remains will be devoted to the naval appropriation bill.

500 ON ST. VINCENT

Believed to Have Perished--Up to Friday. There Were Over 200 Deaths.

WHOLE FAMILIES AMONG DEAD.

Corpses Were Lying Unburied, but Were to Be Interred in Trenches. Great Distress on the Island--Food and Water Famine Threatened.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., May 12.—Advices received here from the island of Dominica yesterday said that boats arriving there reported that many persons were drowned while crossing to Dominica from the island of Martinique, where some of the outpourings have been inundated. The eruption of Mont Pelée (Martinique) continues. The lava is progressing northward. The whole northern region is now a rocky waste, denuded of vegetation.

Reports from the island of St. Vincent said that up to the afternoon of Friday last over 200 deaths had occurred there, owing to the volcanic outbreak in that island. Definite news, however, is lacking. Many estates were destroyed and steam and ashes were belched forth from 7 in the morning until 9:30 at night. The eruption was invisible yesterday at Kingston. Huge dust clouds were blown eastward. Great distress prevails at St. Vincent, where there are many injured persons.

Believed Dead Numbered 500. It is believed that 500 persons lost their lives at St. Vincent. The majority of the corpses were still unburied.

The British royal mail steamer Solent has gone from Barbadoes to Martinique with supplies and doctors.

From the island of Trinidad the British royal mail steamer Kennet has gone to Fort De France.

The British second-class cruiser Indefatigable is on her way from Trinidad to St. Vincent with stores for the relief of the sufferers there.

It was reported here that Fort De France (Martinique) is threatened.

Kingston, Island of St. Vincent, British West Indies, Saturday, May 10.—After numerous earthquakes during the preceding fortnight, accompanied by subterranean noises in the direction of the Soufriere volcano, in the northwestern part of the island, a loud explosion from the crater occurred Monday last and the water in the crater lake ascended in a stupendous cloud of steam and exploded heavily. The noises grew louder continually until Wednesday morning, when the old crater, three miles in circumference, and the new crater formed by the last eruption, belched smoke and stones, forcing the residents of Wallibou and Richmond valley, beneath the volcano, to flee to Chateau Belair for refuge.

Noises Heard 200 Miles Away.

The thunderous noises, which were continually increasing, were heard in neighboring islands 200 miles away.

At midday the craters ejected enormous columns of steamy vapor, rising majestically eight miles high and expanding into wonderful shapes, resembling enormous cauliflower, gigantic wheels and beautiful flower forms, all streaked up and down and crosswise with vivid flashes of lightning, awing the beholder and impressing the mind with fear. The mountain labored to rid itself of a mass of molten lava, which later flowed over in six streams, down the side of the volcano, and the greater noises following united in one continuous roar all evening, through the night to Thursday morning, accompanied with black rain, falling dust and favailla scoria, attended with midnight darkness all Wednesday, creating feelings of fear and anxious suspense.

On the morning of Friday there was a fresh eruption and ejections of fiery matter, more dust covering the island in some places two feet deep.

The crater is still active as this dispatch is sent, and great loss of life is believed to have occurred.

The lava has destroyed several districts with their live stock. People are fleeing to this town, streams are dried up and in many places a food and water famine is threatened. The government is feeding numbers of sufferers from the outbreak.

Great Physical Changes Caused. Great physical changes have taken place in the neighborhood of the Bouffiere.

Several districts have not yet been heard from, and the scene of the eruption is unapproachable. Every hour brings sadder news. The nurses and doctors are overworked.

It is impossible to give full details at present.

As a result of the disaster on this island all business has been suspended for three days. The public mind is still unsettled, fearing further disaster.

Among the deaths are whole families whose corpses are, in several places, still lying unburied. The dead will be interred in trenches.

PACKERS TO SUBMIT TO RULE

Government Acts.

Chicago, May 12.—With the full approval of Attorney General P. C. Knox, representing the national government, District Attorney S. C. Bethea Saturday evening filed with the clerk of the federal circuit court here a bill for an injunction, sweeping in character, designed to destroy the alleged giant conspiracy to illegally control the meat trade of the United States. The original of the bill was recorded the moment filed. At the same time District Attorney Bethea served notice that at 2 p. m., May 20, he will appear before Federal Judge Grosscup and ask for a temporary injunction against the packers and their representatives under the Sherman national anti-trust law. He will be assisted by Attorneys C. B. Morrison and Oliver Pagin from his office, and probably by Special Council W. A. Day.

The defendants, according to one of their representatives, will submit to an entry of an order enjoining them from the acts complained of in the bill, and will promise to refrain from further alleged violations of the law until the time of the next hearing. Before the latter date they will have filed a demurrer, in which the insufficiency of the government's petition will be alleged. This demurrer it is said, will raise an important point under the interstate commerce regulations, probably to the effect that the shipping of meats to one's own agent in another state under a certain agreement is not interstate commerce. In the event that the demurrer shall be overruled the packers will still have the privilege of filing an answer, which will necessitate a further hearing on the merits of the government's charges. If, on the other hand, the demurrer shall be sustained, the federal attorney can file an amended bill.

The petition charges conspiracy, unlawful combination, blacklisting, illegal cartage charges, an illegal credit agreement, creating false market prices, illegally depressing the market and accepting railway rebates.

The bill of complaint is against Swift & Co., the Cudahy Packing company, the Hammond Packing company, Armour & Co., the Armour Packing company, the G. H. Hammond company, Schwarzschild & Sulzberger, Nelson, Morris & Co. and the individuals composing the corporations and firms.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. MOTHER OF MRS. THOS. BLACKMORE BORN IN THAT REGION.

Often Told Interesting Stories of the Island Now So Sorely Stricken.

Mrs. Catherine Barker, whose death occurred in this city about 14 years ago, mother of Mrs. Thomas Blackmore, of East Market street, was born on Barbadoes Island, one of those of the British West India group, about 80 miles from the stricken island of Martinique.

This fact was known to but few of Mrs. Barker's acquaintances, though she often recounted interesting narratives of her native country. Mrs. Blackmore, of East Market street, remembers little of her mother, who died when she was quite young.

Mrs. Clay Gould, residing on Broadway, was a friend of Mrs. Barker and knows much of her life's history. To a reporter this morning Mrs. Gould told some interesting facts in connection with Mrs. Barker's residence in the West Indies. Her father was the owner of a sugar plantation and was immensely wealthy. He owned a number of vessels with which he did his own shipping.

Being thus afforded good opportunities to travel, Mrs. Barker made numerous trips to the different islands surrounding the one on which she lived and on several occasions visited Martinique. She frequently spoke about Martinique and knew much about the country, though she was only 17 years of age when her father moved away from there and came to the United States.

After stopping at Philadelphia for a short time the family went to Canada, where they remained a few years, after which Mrs. Barker, who had in the meantime been married, came to East Liverpool with her husband. This was about the time the civil war broke out and Mr. Barker enlisted. While serving his country he contracted an illness which caused his death.

Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Barker, one of whom is Mrs. Blackmore. Her sister is living in Canada. The mother died in this city when about 50 years of age and her remains lie in the Riverview cemetery.

The island on which Mrs. Barker lived, while not in the immediate pathway of the terrible volcano which worked such havoc in Martinique, was covered with dust from one end to the other to the depth of three or four inches.

PULLED HAIR

North Side Women Get Into a Somewhat Lively Mixup.

Two well known women residing near the Grant street school house indulged in a fight this morning which was witnessed by dozens of their neighbors.

The trouble is said to have started over a quarrel had by the children of the women. The first round was started by a powerful smack on one of the belligerents' cheeks, and then began a hair pulling match. A rolling pin was brought into play before the fight ended, but no serious damage done with it. The case is likely to end in one of the local courts.

LOST AGAIN

EAST LIVERPOOL BALL TEAM DEFEATED ON SUNDAY.

Painesville Put Up a Stiff Game and Downed the Boys 3 to 1.

At Canton Sunday afternoon the East Liverpool baseball team lost to the Painesville team of Wheeling by a score of 3 to 1. There was an immense crowd attended the game, this city being fairly represented. The work of Lou Maley in the box for the locals was marveled at by all. He is but 17 years of age, and notwithstanding, pitched a game of which many leaguers would be proud, holding the Painesville boys, who have an international reputation, down to 7 hits.

His reputation was made in the game, and he will immediately rise from the third nine to star pitcher's place with the first.

The score by innings:

Painesville...1 1 0 1 0 0 0 0—3 7 1
E. Liverpool—0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1 7 2
Batteries—Burns and Needham; Maley and Emmerling.

A DAY WITH NATURE

Most Agreeably Spent By the Members of the Century Club.

A most delightful session of the New Century club was held last Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Newell, on the Southside.

Appropriate to the season, the subject for the afternoon's talk was "A Day With Nature." As is the custom of the club, the members responded to roll call with quotations pertaining to the subject assigned for the day's study. One from Wordsworth was especially fitting:

"One impulse from vernal wood
May teach you more of man,
Of moral evil and of good
Than all the sages can."

Then Miss Newell read a paper upon "The Deeper Meanings of Nature," in the absence of its author, Miss Moore. The paper was especially good and Miss Moore was the recipient of favorable comment.

After a social hour spent roaming over the fields and gathering wild flowers, the guests partook of delightful refreshments.

This is the last meeting of the season, but the business meeting, when officers will be elected, will be held May 24.

CALCUTTA ROAD CARS

The Company Will Have Three Ready for Use As Needed.

The East Liverpool Street Railway company has another car ready to place on the Calcutta Hill road, known as the "Grandview Division." In the future, when the car that has been operated on that road for months is unfit for use, it will be taken to the barn and another car taken to the hill.

The company has been delayed in preparing this car upon account of the non arrival of the track brakes, but now that these have come, the car is ready for use. The company is rigging up another car for this road, making a total of three cars that will be ready to place on the road at a moment's notice.

The Epworth League's anniversary was celebrated last evening and the new officers installed. A class of 11 juniors were admitted into the senior league.

CUBAN FLAG HOISTED.

FLEW OVER MORRO, ALONGSIDE STARS AND STRIPES.

President-Elect Palma Reached Havana—Given an Enthusiastic Welcome.

Havana, May 12.—At 23 minutes of 8 yesterday morning a large Cuban flag was hoisted over Morro castle here.

This was the signal that the steamer Julia, with President-elect Estrada Palma and his party on board, had been sighted, and cheers went up from the thousands who, on the shore opposite Morro castle, had patiently awaited the Julia's arrival since daybreak. The crowd cheered for the new president and for the flag, which was hoisted on the famous fortress for the first time.

Moment of Exultation For Cubans.

It was a moment of exultation for the Cubans, and the fact that the Stars and Stripes floated from its customary flag staff beside the Cuban flag over the castle did not lessen their enthusiasm.

The Cuban flag flying over Morro was the same one which was first raised over the senate chamber. It was sent to the castle Sunday. As it rose the bands stationed along the water front played the Cuban national hymn, steamers saluted and church bells were rung.

Two hours later, after the last of the great fleet of vessels that had gone out to escort the Julia to the harbor had returned past Morro castle, this flag was lowered and raised over the senate chamber.

There was continuous saluting as the Julia sailed between the rows of decorated tugs and barges and there were cheers from the crowded wharves. The several warships in the harbor were also decorated. The Stars and Stripes floated over the wreck of the Maine, and under this flag the Cuban commission in charge of the festivities had caused a black and white pennant to be placed.

The steam tug Dauntless, the old filibuster, was given the right of the line in the marine procession.

Welcomed By Vice President.

When he arrived at the wharf the president-elect was welcomed by Vice President Esteve in a brief speech. A pretty feature of the reception here was Senor Estrada Palma's welcome by 23 young Cuban women dressed in costumes representing the American republics. Senora Durio, who represented Cuba, delivered an address and read a poem.

From the wharf the president-elect was escorted to the palace by members of the rural guard. Governor General Wood, his staff and the secretaries received Senor Estrada Palma at the palace. From here the president-elect proceeded to the municipal council building, where speeches were made by the mayor of Havana and Senor Zayas and Senor Palma.

Accompanied By Gov. Gen. Wood.

General Wood accompanied Senor Estrada Palma to the residence of General Maximo Gomez, where the president-elect will reside until his inauguration, May 20.

The municipal council gave a breakfast in honor of Senor Estrada Palma at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was seated at the right of the mayor of the city, while General Gomez was seated at the mayor's left.

At a dinner given last night by General Wood, Senor Estrada Palma, General Gomez, the archbishop of Havana, the secretaries and a number of prominent Cubans were present.

Mrs. Estrada Palma, wife of the president-elect, will be welcomed officially when she arrives here today. She left New York May 8 for Havana on the Ward line steamer Havana.

This fact was known to but few of Mrs. Barker's acquaintances, though she often recounted interesting narratives of her native country. Mrs. Blackmore, of East Market street, remembers little of her mother, who died when she was quite young.

Mrs. Clay Gould, residing on Broadway, was a friend of Mrs. Barker and knows much of her life's history. To a reporter this morning Mrs. Gould told some interesting facts in connection with Mrs. Barker's residence in the West Indies. Her father was the owner of a sugar plantation and was immensely wealthy. He owned a number of vessels with which he did his own shipping.

Being thus afforded good opportunities to travel, Mrs. Barker made numerous trips to the different islands surrounding the one on which she lived and on several occasions visited Martinique. She frequently spoke about Martinique and knew much about the country, though she was only 17 years of age when her father moved away from there and came to the United States.

After stopping at Philadelphia for a short time the family went to Canada, where they remained a few years, after which Mrs. Barker, who had in the meantime been married, came to East Liverpool with her husband. This was about the time the civil war broke out and Mr. Barker enlisted. While serving his country he contracted an illness which caused his death.

Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Barker, one of whom is Mrs. Blackmore. Her sister is living in Canada. The mother died in this city when about 50 years of age and her remains lie in the Riverview cemetery.

The island on which Mrs. Barker lived, while not in the immediate pathway of the terrible volcano which worked such havoc in Martinique, was covered with dust from one end to the other to the depth of three or four inches.

PULLED HAIR

North Side Women Get Into a Somewhat Lively Mixup.

Two well known women residing near the Grant street school house indulged in a fight this morning which was witnessed by dozens of their neighbors.

The trouble is said to have started over a quarrel had by the children of the women. The first round was started by a powerful smack on one of the belligerents' cheeks, and then began a hair pulling match. A rolling pin was brought into play before the fight ended, but no serious damage done with it. The case is likely to end in one of the local courts.

LOST AGAIN

EAST LIVERPOOL BALL TEAM DEFEATED ON SUNDAY.

Painesville Put Up a Stiff Game and Downed the Boys 3 to 1.

At Canton Sunday afternoon the East Liverpool baseball team lost to the Painesville team of Wheeling by a score of 3 to 1. There was an immense crowd attended the game, this city being fairly represented. The work of Lou Maley in the box for the locals was marveled at by all. He is but 17 years of age, and notwithstanding, pitched a game of which many leaguers would be proud, holding the Painesville boys, who have an international reputation, down to 7 hits.

His reputation was made in the game, and he will immediately rise from the third nine to star pitcher's place with the first.

The score by innings:

E. Liverpool...0 0 0 0 0 1 0—1 7 2

A DAY WITH NATURE

Most Agreeably Spent By the Members of the Century Club.

A most delightful session of the New Century club was held last Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Newell, on the Southside.

Appropriate to the season, the subject for the afternoon's talk was "A Day With Nature." As is the custom of the club, the members responded to roll call with quotations pertaining to the subject assigned for the day's study. One from Wordsworth was especially fitting:

"One impulse from vernal wood
May teach you more of man,
Of moral evil and of good
Than all the sages can."

Then Miss Newell read a paper upon "The Deeper Meanings of Nature," in the absence of its author, Miss Moore. The paper was especially good and Miss Moore was the recipient of favorable comment.

After a social hour spent roaming over the fields and gathering wild flowers, the guests partook of delightful refreshments.

This is the last meeting of the season, but the business meeting, when officers will be elected, will be held May 24.

CALCUTTA ROAD CARS

The Company Will Have Three Ready for Use As Needed.

The East Liverpool Street Railway company has another car ready to place on the Calcutta Hill road, known as the "Grandview Division." In the future, when the car that has been operated on that road for months is unfit for use, it will be taken to the barn and another car taken to the hill.

The company has been delayed in preparing this car upon account of the non arrival of the track brakes, but now that these have come, the car is ready for use. The company is rigging up another car for this road, making a total of three cars that will be ready to place on the road at a moment's notice.

CUBAN FLAG HOISTED.

FLEW OVER MORRO, ALONGSIDE STARS AND STRIPES.

President-Elect Palma Reached Havana—Given an Enthusiastic Welcome.

Havana, May 12.—At 23 minutes of 8 yesterday morning a large Cuban flag was hoisted over Morro castle here.

This was the signal that the steamer Julia, with President-elect Estrada Palma and his party on board, had been sighted, and cheers went up from the thousands who, on the shore opposite Morro castle, had patiently awaited the Julia's arrival since daybreak. The crowd cheered for the new president and for the flag, which was hoisted on the famous fortress for the first time.

Moment of Exultation For Cubans.

It was a moment of exultation for the Cubans, and the fact that the Stars and Stripes floated from its customary flag staff beside the Cuban flag over the castle did not lessen their enthusiasm.

The Cuban flag flying over Morro was the same one which was first raised over the senate chamber. It was sent to the castle Sunday. As it rose the bands stationed along the water front played the Cuban national hymn, steamers saluted and church bells were rung.

Two hours later, after the last of the great fleet of vessels that had gone out to escort the Julia to the harbor had returned past Morro castle, this flag was lowered and raised over the senate chamber.

There was continuous saluting as the Julia sailed between the rows of decorated tugs and barges and there were cheers from the crowded wharves. The several warships in the harbor were also decorated. The Stars and Stripes floated over the wreck of the Maine, and under this flag the Cuban commission in charge of the festivities had caused a black and white pennant to be placed.

The steam tug Dauntless, the old filibuster, was given the right of the line in the marine procession.

Welcomed By Vice President.

When he arrived at the wharf the president-elect was welcomed by Vice President Esteve in a brief speech. A pretty feature of the reception here was Senor Estrada Palma's welcome by 23 young Cuban women dressed in costumes representing the American republics. Senora Durio, who represented Cuba, delivered an address and read a poem.

From the wharf the president-elect was escorted to the palace by members of the rural guard. Governor General Wood, his staff and the secretaries received Senor Estrada Palma at the palace. From here the president-elect proceeded to the municipal council building, where speeches were made by the mayor of Havana and Senor Zayas and Senor Palma.

Accompanied By Gov. Gen. Wood.

General Wood accompanied Senor Estrada Palma to the residence of General Maximo Gomez, where the president-elect will reside until his inauguration, May 20.

The municipal council gave a breakfast in honor of Senor Estrada Palma at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was seated at the right of the mayor of the city, while General Gomez was seated at the mayor's left.

At a dinner given last night by General Wood, Senor Estrada Palma, General Gomez, the archbishop of Havana, the secretaries and a number of prominent Cubans were present.

Mrs. Estrada Palma, wife of the president-elect, will be welcomed officially when she arrives here today. She left New York May 8 for Havana on the Ward line steamer Havana.

19TH YEAR. NO. 112.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, MAY 12, 1902.

TWO CENTS.

GRAVE CHARGES ARE FILED AGAINST A WELLSVILLE MAN

A. B. Smith, Prominent Oil Operator, Defendant in Divorce Suit.

HIS WIFE HAS LEFT HIM

And She Thinks She Has Excellent Reason For Deciding to Do So.

LETTER FROM A YOUNG WOMAN

Gave Her the Clue Which Resulted In Her Suit—The Accused Girl Said to Have Repented and Confessed In Full.

A sensational divorce suit has been entered in the circuit court at Lisbon. Mrs. Alexander B. Smith, wife of a prominent oil operator of Wellsville, has separated from her husband, for the best reason which can be assigned, it is alleged, for such action.

For about three years, it is alleged, Mr. Smith has been intimate with a girl in Wellsville now but 18 years of age. All this time everything ran smoothly and Mrs. Smith was in ignorance of his alleged infidelity until she happened to get from the postoffice a letter addressed to Mr. Smith by his girl. In this letter she asked him for money to procure some articles of dress. This, of course, was a great blow to the wife, and she was soon after taken sick from worry and incidentally from malarial fever. She wrote to her sister, who lives in British Columbia, telling her of the letter. This caused the sister to come immediately to Wellsville, arriving Friday, April 27.

The sister, soon after reaching Wellsville, hunted up the father of the girl and told him of the matter. In the meantime, it seems that the unfortunate woman had been converted and repented of her sins. When questioned by her father, remorse for the great wrong she had done Mrs. Smith drove her to unload her conscience by telling the whole sad story.

The girl and her father called on Mrs. Smith and her sister at the Smiths' rooms, where the story was told. Later a confession in writing was made, which she signed, showing her willingness to do all she could to right the wrong. She also gave them letters, written, it is claimed, by Smith, in which he expressed a desire to meet her at various places and containing other matters of a highly incriminating nature.

Several of these letters are of a very recent date. From them it appears he wanted to make appointments with her after she had been converted and while Mrs. Smith was ill. She claims that since her conversion her conduct has been proper and that she has refused to have anything to do with Smith.

On the Sunday following Smith learned that the bomb had exploded and proceeded to his rooms where he found his wife and sister-in-law. He, is said, demanded that the letters which the girl had turned over to them be given to him. The women told him the letters were in a safe place and he could not have them.

Quite a scene is said to have followed and the excitement so affected Mrs. Smith that a physician was summoned. On Tuesday, April 29, Mrs. Smith and her sister started for British Columbia where Mrs. Smith hopes to recuperate. Before leaving she employed an attorney to institute proceedings for divorce and will return when the matter comes up in court at Lisbon.

SALEM CITY SUED

Damages Claimed Because a Street Sweeper Scared Horses.

Lisbon, May 12.—(Special)—W. G. Waithman, of Salem, has sued the city of Salem for $120.85 damages. He claims that a street sweeper, sweeping on Broadway, persisted in sweeping around his horses' feet, causing them to run away.

Both horses were injured, one having its hip broke.

VICTORY FOR THE DRYS

Rejoicing Among Foes of Saloons in East Palestine Village.

East Palestine, May 12.—(Special)—The war between the wets and the dry is over and there is rejoicing among the latter. The contest was exciting, but saloons were voted down by a good majority. The total vote for east and west precincts stood: Dry, 328; wet, 230.

This is the third time East Palestine has gone dry. At the second election the majority against license was 22.

PAINTERS FELL FROM SCAFFOLD

HOMER CUMMINGS THE VICTIM OF SERIOUS INJURIES.

An Accident in the East End Gave Two Men a Close Call.

Homer Cummings, a painter employed by Glenn & Baxter, of West Market street, met with an accident in the East End this morning which may prove very serious. He and Dan McGavern were standing on a poorly constructed scaffold when it broke and precipitated them to the ground, a distance of 20 feet.

McGavern escaped unhurt, but Cummings, falling on a sharp edged stone, sustained probably fatal injuries, his right side and hip being badly crushed.

The patrol was called and conveyed the unfortunate man to his home and family at Walker.

WARM TIME AHEAD

Butchers' Association Proposes to Take Up the Case of a Withdrawing Member.

There is to be a meeting of butchers' association Thursday evening and the session gives promise of being the most interesting that has been held for weeks.

The action of one member in severing his relations with the association will be the main topic for discussion, and the result of this will be watched with more than ordinary interest. It was exclusively announced in this paper a few days ago that an East End meat dealer had withdrawn from the "combine," and the statement was made this morning that each one in the association was under a bond of $50 to keep the agreements made at the time the association was perfected.

It is stated that, should the association decide to take the matter into a court of justice, the bonds that were deposited with the officials of the association will be found worthless. Such is the opinion quoted by one of the local attorneys to a member of the association.

BEFORE A JURY

R. M. Haugh's Suit Against the Street Railway on Trial Today.

The case of R. M. Haugh against the East Liverpool Railway company, wherein the latter is sued for $150 damages, which the plaintiff alleges are due him as a result of two collisions with his funeral car and wagon by street cars owned and operated by the defendant, is on trial today in Squire McLane's court.

The case will probably get to the jury this evening. Those constituting the jury are: S. R. Dixon, M. H. Bough, John Wyman, John W. Hall and William Kenny. Attorneys Boyd and Lones, of Wellsville, represent the plaintiff and Prosecutor Brookes the defendant.

TOUR OF INSPECTION

Being Made by the Street Committee of Council.

The street committee of council, accompanied by City Solicitor McGarry and City Engineer Kelly, were out in a carriage this afternoon, making an inspection of the streets preparatory to recommending certain action for improvements to council at its regular meeting to be held tomorrow evening.

By request of the Central Telephone company an inspection was made of Pennsylvania avenue and the places designated for the setting of poles along that thoroughfare.

Sued for $300.

Lisbon, May 12.—(Special)—The Bailey-Farrell Manufacturing company, of Pittsburg, has entered suit against Ansel B. Stubbins, of Wellsville, for $300 on account.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN

Carload of Passengers Narrowly Miss Death

In the East End—Only Two Men Were Hurt.

A terrible accident was narrowly averted in the East End between 10 and 11 o'clock Saturday night, but as it was eight passengers on westbound car No. 8 of the East Liverpool street railway, received a severe shaking up, and Conductor Blue, who, it is alleged, was the cause of the accident, was severely injured about the knees.

The car was standing at the railroad crossing waiting for an eastbound freight to pass, said Supt. Reed this morning, and Conductor Blue, seeing the lights on the caboose, thought that by the time the car would start the train would be past Mulberry street, or the street railway tracks at least cleared. Motorman Goddard was also on the front step, and when he saw Blue turn the power into the controller knew that an accident would result. He made a lunge for the controller handle, but before he could seize it the car struck the caboose, the movement of the passing train throwing the car off the track and breaking a number of pieces out of a front wheel. The car was not damaged other than being scratched, and but one light of glass was broken.

Great excitement existed among the passengers for a time, all thinking the car would be turned over and many killed. With the exception of one passenger no one was injured and this was Samuel Larkins, who had ankle hurt. Mr. Larkins was also bringing several dozen of eggs to his home in this city, and all that was left of these after the accident was the shells. A statement of the loss of these will be sent to the company, so Mr. Larkins told a number of friends.

Conductor Blue has been on the road but a short time and was considered one of the best men on the road. That he should take the responsibility cannot be understood by the company. It is reasonable to believe that he will not work on the road again, at least for a while.

CALCUTTA FOLK ARE OBJECTING

Many Protests Against Those Who Would Stop Road Improvement.

THE HIGHWAY IS BAD

And Numerous People Would Be Glad to See It Changed For the Better—Where Some of the Worst Spots are Located.

There is no end of kicking in and about Calcutta over the actions of some persons in that locality, who are trying to get an injunction issued against the improvement of the Calcutta road by paving. If there ever was a road that needed to be paved, and that at once, it is Calcutta road. It is in a horrible condition, being nothing but a succession of holes from Calcutta to Riverview cemetery gate. There are certain portions of the road that at present two teams cannot pass, one team being compelled to wait at the wide portion of the road until the team going in an opposite direction passes. That persons would oppose an improvement so much needed, is more than can be understood by many residents of Calcutta.

In making the survey for this improvement the engineers placed stakes in the middle of the roadway, which extend several inches above the ground. At present the road is quite dusty near these stakes, and it is with difficulty that teamsters can see them and prevent their horses stumbling over them.

Even in Calcutta the road is in a bad condition, and that the improvement is being held back is not at all relished by those who desire to see their property increased in value.

THE PETITION FILED

St. Clair Township Citizens Fighting the Proposed Calcutta Road Improvement.

Lisbon, May 12.—(Special)—The petition in the case of George Grader, Benjamin J. Fisher and John P. Montgomery, of St. Clair township, against the trustees of that township has been filed. In this matter an injunction is asked, restraining the trustees from improving the Calcutta road through a bond issue.

The matter will come up for a hearing on Thursday.

ADJOURNMENT OF POTTERS DELAYED

The Brotherhood Convention Will Last Probably Until Wednesday.

TWO RESOLUTIONS PASSED

Greatest Number of Resolutions Ever Presented at a Convention Considered at Present Session—Delegates Think Well of Trenton.

Trenton, N. J., May 2.—When the Brotherhood convention commenced its business in this city last Monday it was expected that its work would be completed by Saturday evening, but so many resolutions have been introduced that it is now assured that the work of the convention will not be completed until Wednesday at the earliest.

This is absolutely necessary because of the fact that more resolutions are before the committees than ever before in the history of the Brotherhood.

Some of the locals have but one or two resolutions, but most of them have five and six, and some few have as many as ten.

Saturday morning's session was totally devoted to the reception of reports from the committee on resolutions.

Many matters were favorably reported, but when they reached the convention they were rejected and but comparatively few resolutions were received and passed.

The most important resolution of public interest passed Saturday morning concerned a uniform price list in two branches of the industry.

The first was one making a uniform list for warehousemen. Each pottery now has its own list. This condition has always prevailed and has been a matter of considerable dispute among warehousemen.

The second resolution was one establishing a uniform list for machine-made dishes.

Heretofore this branch of the trade has been guided as to pay by shop prices and the scales of wages were as numerous as are potteries.

No resolutions of local interest were before the convention Saturday morning, but it is expected that the Trenton resolution calling for the revision of the sanitary price list will be reached soon.

This resolution simply asks that pieces of ware not now covered by the operative list be inserted.

There is no doubt but that this measure will pass the convention as soon as it gets from the committee on price lists.

Saturday afternoon's session convened at 1:30 o'clock, in order that an early adjournment might be taken to allow the delegates some recreation.

This session was taken up with the unfinished business of the morning, comprising reports on resolutions and price list.

A communication was read before the convention during the morning inviting the national officers and visiting delegates to view the city from the roof of the Broad Street National bank building. The invitation was accepted with a vote of thanks.

The view was taken this morning at 11:45 o'clock, and to allow it the convention took an early adjournment.

EAGLES' REUNION

MANY THOUSANDS EXPECTED TO BE PRESENT.

Local Committee Has All Matters Arranged, and Tell of Large Delegations to Come.

Practically all arrangements are completed for the annual reunion of the Knights of the Golden Eagle which will be held at Rock Springs Park June 7. The local committee, who has charge of the reunion, which will be for members of the order from three states, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio, have within the past few days received word from lodges as far distant as Cleveland, Parkersburg, Springfield, Greensburg, Erie, New Castle, Wheeling, and other towns in the states, stating that large delegations are preparing to attend the outing. A member of the committee stated this morning that not less than 15,000 persons are expected to attend the big event. It promises to be the largest reunion ever held by the order. The local committee has left no stone unturned that would make the affair a success, which speaks well for the East Liverpool lodge.

ACTION FOR DIVORCE

Filed By a Wellsville Woman Who Charges Neglect And Desertion.

Lisbon, May 12.—(Special)—Mrs. Martha E. Gordon, of Wellsville, has begun an action for divorce against James H. Gordon. They were married in 1889 and have two children—James and Hazel, aged 12 and 10. She claims that about three years ago she was dangerously sick and that he refused to furnish her care or medicine and at the crisis of her illness left her. At that time he conducted himself so as to put her in danger.

She asks for the custody of the children and that he be compelled to provide for and educate them.

Asks Title to Land.

Lisbon, May 12.—(Special)—Edward G. Whitacre, of Wellsville, has begun an action asking the court to make good his title in the north 8 feet and 4 inches of his land on Third street in Wellsville. He claims that Phrisbee and Elizabeth Holliday gave him a deed for the land, but that it was not recovered and he has lost the original. The Holliday heirs dispute his title.

Seventy-fifth General Assembly of Ohio Adjourned Today.

ALMORT 1,000 NEW LAWS

Have Been Enacted by the Solons In the Past Few Months.

THE MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL

Were the Willis and Cole Measures Affecting Taxation—The Governor's Ideas Will Now Be Practically Tested.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 12.—The seventy-fifth general assembly of Ohio passed into history at noon today. The closing scenes were marked by the usual ceremonies consisting of the presentation of gifts to the president of the senate, speaker of the house and the leading officers of both bodies. Contemplation of a welcome emancipation from the cares and responsibilities which are attendant upon the life of a statesman filled the legislators with happiness and for the nonce peace, sweet and serene, prevailed. The customary resolution of respect for the speaker was adopted. The session has been one of the most eventful in the state's history and has bristled with exciting and stirring scenes at times. There have been many bitter fights and on two occasions it seemed that a riot was imminent. Be this as it may, the weary statesmen are glad that the session is over, and today they were in a forgiving mood. They were willing to let bygones be bygones and Democrats and Republicans fraternized together.

Almost 1,000 new laws have been made, the most conspicuous being those embodying the taxation scheme of the administration. The Willis and Cole bills were the most prominent of the taxation measures, the administration plan for the abolition of the state real and personal tax being based on these. These acts will determine the wisdom of Governor Nash's ideas on taxation. Another important bill made a law was the Cain measure providing for the collection of the Dow tax from speakeasies and places of questionable reputation, which sell liquor without the formality of paying the tax. These violators will be ferreted out by deputies of the dairy and food commissioner, who will report their names to the county auditor to place them on the duplicate.

The enforcement of this act will swell to no inconsiderable extent the present plethora of condition of the state treasury. Another law of much importance is the Longworth-Herrick bill giving municipalities authority to issue bonds without asking the legislature for special enactment. This will also cut down the work of the legislature because bills without number are dumped in at every session providing for special bond issues. The important bills which were done to death were the canal abandonment bill and the municipal code.

The house and senate waded through their calendars with amazing rapidity Saturday, the upper body remaining in session almost until the tolling of the midnight hour. Bills were jammed through in a twinkling. More genuine work was crowded into the last working day of the session than has been accomplished before in week's time. The house wrought with unceasing energy during the day and when the eventide had come had most of its business cleared away. Several attempts were made to hold sessions at night, but they were fruitless. The members were in a merry mood and proceeded to have a jolly time. Jest and books were hurled at each other. Even the stern features of Speaker McKinnon relaxed and he entered into the spirit of the occasion. Several of the Democratic members went outside where things were passed around. The closing hours of every session always witnesses such scenes.

Not until late Saturday afternoon was it known that an adjournment would be taken Monday. There were mutterings of discontent over the appropriation bills, which were finally re-

PRISON DEMON HAS BEEN TAMED

Ira Marlatt of This County Appears to Have Been Conquered
by Kindness.

HE HAS NO COMPLAINTS

To Make of the Prison As Now Managed—The Prisoner Explains Why
He Was Desperate in Former Years.

Columbus, May 12.—Under former managements of the Ohio penitentiary the star attraction of the prison was Ira Marlatt, a life prisoner from Columbiana county. He was the stock subject for sensational articles in the press. He was wild and ferocious, and the infliction of the most brutal and barbarous punishments only made him more rebellious and desperate.

The more the misguided officials attempted to subdue him by torture the worse he rebelled. They tried everything but humanity and kindness, and the untamed spirit of Marlatt responded with wild ferocity. As he grew more desperate those in charge became afraid of him, and they had a special cell built of boiler iron, 8 by 10 by 8, with only one little hole for ventilation, with rings above to string him up by the wrists, by way of exercise and to break the monotony of his solitary confinement. Here Marlatt was confined and tortured, and when a sensation was sought all that was necessary was to stick in a pole and stir him up like a wild beast and Marlatt responded with ferocity.

Under Warden Darby's management a humane policy has been pursued. He has realized that the prisoners are human and have rights that ought to be respected, and while brutal treatment could only degrade and harden patience and kindness might soften and redeem, if not reform. The prisoners have been well fed and better clothed. Men never meditate or commit crime on a full stomach, and the best managed prisons are those in which the prisoners are well fed, with an abundance of good, wholesome food. It is the hungry criminal that is always alert for mischief and eager for devilry. Caesar was not afraid of the fat and easy Brutus, but he "liked not the looks of that lean and hungry Cas- sius."

John Cunningham, an old detective from Cincinnati, was placed in charge of the courtroom, and the solitary department, and with the warden's approval he resolved to try kindness in dealing with Marlatt. He was released from his cell and given some liberty, and immediately responded by a submissive and more gentle demeanor. Now he works in a shop near the solitary cells. He is an engraver by trade, and I found him sharpening a dividing tool. As his name was called he looked up, and upon introduction he paused and shook hands. He has a good face and a pair of those keen blue steel eyes that denote that indomitable grit and spirit that nothing but death can conquer. He stutters in his speech, and I can imagine that this infirmity must have been a source of infinite amusement to his keepers when subjecting their victim to torture.

He was anxious to know the fate of the bill to repeal the habitual criminal law. When entering the prison Warden Darby said: "Go any place and talk to any one." This is a dangerous privilege to grant to a newspaper man in some prisons, but is such a permit as would be readily given by a manager who is conscious of a humane purpose, and desires to discharge his duty in this most difficult position.

Taking advantage of the permission granted, Marlatt was asked why he had been so desperate and what had caused the change.

"Well, he said, 'they tried to break me for three years, and I was determined not to yield, even if they killed me, but under the present management they treat me kindly and I can't fight that. I know that Warden Darby is not to blame for my being here. It's his duty to take care of me and the rest of us and keep us here, and maintain order and discipline, and as long as I am treated kindly I don't want to be ungrateful and cause him any more trouble than I can help.'

"I don't think that any of us have any reason to complain of the present management. If any of us have any grievance we can send a request to the warden or the board, and get a hearing and receive justice, whereas if I even asked for a hearing before I received punishment of the worst description. That kind of treatment not only makes the prisoners worse, but it brutalizes and defeats the sole purpose for which prisons are created, which, as I take it, is to prevent crime and reform criminals."

STEALING FREIGHT

Railroad Detectives Propose to Investigate Recent Troubles
In the East End.

The matter of stealing freight from the East End freight station has become a problem that the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad officials will sift to the bottom, and it is reasonable to suppose that when the work of the detectives has been completed, several arrests will follow, which, it is hoped, will serve to put a stop to all such work. The East End merchants have been much hampered by the stealing of freight, and it is quite evident that there is a gang of thieves in this part of the city which should be broken up.

Laying Water Mains.

A force of laborers under the direction of water works superintendent Phil Morley have about completed the task of laying a water main along the extension of St. George street. There will be a four-inch main on this part of the street, and as the pipe for the extension has been delivered, it will require but a few days to place it under the ground. This will give the residents of that part of the city a water service which they have been deprived of for years.

Chaffinville to Be Cleaned.

There was joy in Chaffinville this morning over the fact that the street force of the East End have commenced to clean the streets of that section. This work will be of little value unless the residents of that part of the city keep the neighborhood clean after the street men complete their work. All the alleys are to be also cleaned, and the entire section is to be thoroughly renovated.

Raising Boyce Street.

The East End street force has commenced the work of filling in Boyce street from Pennsylvania avenue to the sewer pipe works. In some places the street is quite low, but it is the intention of the street force to distribute enough cinders along the street to bring it up to the set grade.

A Small Fire.

A small chimney fire occurred yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the Grundy property on Third street, near city hall. The damage was slight, nothing but a few shingles of the roof about the chimney being destroyed.

Mrs. Leland Wilson, who has been visiting friends at Crafton, Pa., for several days, returned to her home in the East End today.

A number of persons from Chaffinville, who have been visiting their former southern homes for a few weeks, returned to the city yesterday by boats. Several southerners came to the East End.

Mrs. William M. Canover, daughter of Elijah Mountford, of Ohio avenue, who proposes to make her home in the East End, arrived in the city yesterday from Trenton. Mr. Canover died in Trenton recently.

A meeting of the cabinet of the Epworth League, of the Erie street M. E. church, will be held at the parsonage tomorrow evening for the purpose of selecting work for the several committees during the year.

THE NEW GAME LAW

Provisions of the Archer Bill Elucidated for Sportsmen.

Many questions have arisen among local sportsmen as to the provisions of the Archer game bill, now a law. The following may perhaps enlighten them somewhat obscure points.

The provision of the original bill for extending the open season for quail ten days was amended. The open season stands the same as last year, from November 10 to December 1. It also provides that any one person shall not kill in one day more than 18 quail, and in no case except when flying.

The season for shooting wild duck is fixed from September 15 to December 15 and from March 1 to April 20.

No sneak boat shall be used to pursue ducks. Woodcocks and squirrel may be killed between August 1 and September 1, and rabbits between November 10 and December 15.

Non-residents of Ohio must secure a license from the county clerk for which they must pay $25. The money accruing from such licenses goes to the State Fish and Game Commission.

The clause in the new law which relates to blue gill and bass fishing reads as follows:

"No person shall in any of the waters of the state, natural or artificial, take or catch in any manner any sunfish known as the blue gill, and common sunfish or black bass between May 1 and June 1 inclusive."

400 EXCURSIONISTS

Came From Wheeling to See the Sights of East Liverpool.
Sunday.

The steamer City of Wheeling landed at the city wharf Sunday at 4 p. m. with 400 excursionists aboard. The majority of them were from Wheeling and were members of the Beethoven Singing society. However, there were a few from intermediate points, and the crowd as a whole was made up of jolly, good people.

A string band furnished music of a superior class. At 5:30 o'clock the excursionists, having promenaded through and seen the sights of the city, the boat departed on its return trip. A small crowd of the city enjoyed the ride to Wellsville, returning on a street car.

During the same period, Winnie Mercer, who is pitching for the Detroit American league team played but two games. During that time he was at the bat 8 times, made 3 runs, 2 hits and had 7 assists. In Friday's game Mercer was in the box for the Detroit team, which lost to St. Louis. Although St. Louis made 10 hits off his delivery, he succeeded in holding the opposing team down to three runs.

A GOOD EVIDENCE OF THE PROGRESS OF AERIAL NAVIGATION IS THE NUMBER OF BRIGHT MINDS NOW STUDYING THIS ALL IMPORTANT BRANCH OF APPLIED SCIENCE. to Hang.

Pittsburg, May 12.—Mrs. Catherine Soffel was sentenced to two years to the Western Penitentiary Saturday for aiding and abetting the escape of the notorious Biddle boys from the county jail. She had entered a plea of guilty last Monday when called for trial.

Walter Dorman, who pleaded guilty to participation in the crimes of the Biddles, was sentenced to be hanged. The pardon board will probably commute his sentence to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Soffel was taken to the penitentiary almost immediately after being sentenced and is now a prisoner at that institution.

FIERY LAVA WIPED OUT FOUR CITIES.

Whole Northeastern Section of Martinique Laid Waste
by the Volcanic Eruption.

5,000 REFUGEES SOUGHT HILLS NEAR ST. PIERRE.

They Were Being Taken Away Gradually—Of the 30 Persons Originally Rescued by the French Cruiser Suchet, the Majority Were Fearfully Burned—Nine Died on the Way to the Hospital—Corpses Heaped in Ruins of St. Pierre Naked and Frightfully Mutilated.

Paris, May 12.—The Temps yesterday, referring to the destruction at St. Pierre, said:

"We believe, from the information received here from the island of Martinique (meaning doubtless the official dispatches), that the disaster surpasses all that imagination can conceive. The whole northeastern portion of the island is laid waste. Three large communities exclusive of St. Pierre have been destroyed. The victims comprise two candidates for today's ballotage for members of the chamber of deputies."

A dispatch received here yesterday from Fort de France, Martinique, says:

"All the hills surrounding Le Carbet and Le Precheur (near St. Pierre) are covered with refugees, to the number of 5,000, who are being taken away gradually. In the meanwhile provisions are being conveyed to them."

Nine of Rescued Died.

"Of the 30 persons who were originally rescued by the French cruiser Suchet the majority were fearfully burned, and nine died while on their way to the hospital."

"The corpses which are heaped in the ruins of St. Pierre are not only completely naked, but are frightfully mutilated."

The minister of marine, M. De Lanessan, yesterday received a cable dispatch from the commander of the French cruiser Suchet, dated Fort de France, Martinique, saying that he conducted a search at St. Pierre Saturday. The captain reported that the town is now a mere heap of smoking ruins, under which the victims of the catastrophe are buried. The Suchet was able to convey some of the inhabitants of Le Precheur to Fort de France, but could not reach the northernmost part of the island on account of the dense rain of ashes.

The captain of the Suchet further reported that the Mont Pelée volcano had a threatening aspect Saturday evening. Subterranean rumblings were still heard, flashes of flame frequently belched from the volcano and stones were thrown out with immense force. A dispatch received at the colonial office here yesterday from Fort de France said there was no doubt that Governor Mouttet and the commander of the troops at St. Pierre, Colonel Dain, are dead.

Consuls and Families Perished.

Other dispatches confirmed the reports that the American and British consuls and their families perished.

M. Bloch, inspector of finance, and M. Labarthe, the colonial minister's secretary, who have been dispatched by the government to Martinique, sailed from Brest yesterday on board the French cruiser d'Assas, which carries money, provisions and other stores for the relief of the Martinique sufferers.

A French cable official who went to St. Pierre reports that the company's office has been burned to ashes and that there is no trace of the staff. This official adds that the cremation of the bodies of the victims has begun and that the cable steamer Pouyer Quartier is proceeding to repair the northern cable.

The waves of lava are still reported to be flowing northward. They have extended to Le Carbet.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., N. Y.

French chamber of deputies who perished at St. Pierre were Mm. Percin and Le Clerc.

The colonial minister has organized a relief distribution committee, consisting of himself and M. Decrais, former colonial minister, the colonial members of the chamber of deputies, the colonial senators and a number of commercial men. The first meeting of this committee will occur tomorrow.

The British ambassador, Sir Edmund J. Monson, called at the Elysée palace yesterday afternoon and communicated to President Loubet personally the sympathy of King Edward.

Further Details of the Disaster.

Fort De France, Island of Martinique, May 12.—Advices received here yesterday from the vicinity of St. Pierre (10 miles from here) contain further details of the terrible volcanic upheaval which resulted in the utter destruction of that town and the death of nearly all its inhabitants.

The crater of Mont Pelée had been wearing its "smoke cap" since the 3d of May, but there was nothing until last Monday to indicate that there was the slightest danger. On that day a stream of boiling lava burst through the top of the crater and plunged into the valley of the river Blanche, overwhelming the Guerin sugar works and killing 23 work people, and the son of the proprietor.

A commission was appointed by the governor to investigate the outbreak and it returned a reassuring report on Wednesday evening. But about 8 o'clock on Thursday morning a shower of fire rushed down on St. Pierre, and the coast from Le Carbet, which had a population of 6,000, to Le Precheur, which had a population of 4,000, burning up everything in its path.

Heroic Work of French Cruiser.

Throughout Thursday the heat in the vicinity of St. Pierre was so intense and the stream of flowing lava was so unremitting that it was almost impossible to approach the town during the early part of the day. As evening approached the French cruiser Suchet, after a heroic battle with the heat, suffocation and sulphur fumes, succeeded in making a dash toward the shore, nearing the land close enough to enable her to take off 30 survivors of the disaster, all of whom were horribly burned and mutilated.

St. Pierre at that time was an absolute, smoking waste, concealing 30,000 corpses, whose rapid decomposition necessitated in some cases, instantly completing their cremation, which was only partially accomplished by the lava.

The inhabitants of Fort de France were panic stricken the morning of the disaster, when the sky suddenly blackened until it was as dark as at midnight. The seas shrank back 30 yards, and hot rain began to fall, while gravel, the size of walnuts, poured down on the town. This lasted about 15 minutes.

Survivors Nearly Roasted to Death.

The 450 survivors who were brought here yesterday from the vicinity of St. Pierre by the French cable repair ship Pouyer Quartier came from the town of Le Precheur, where, surrounded on all sides by flowing lava, they were nearly roasted to death and expected momentarily to be engulfed.

The work of relief is progressing here on the most extensive scale possible, but in anticipation of disturbances the treasury building and the warehouses are guarded by troops.

The latest reports received here showed that lava continues to pour down the slopes of the mountain, slowly engulfing the whole north side of the island, while fresh crevasses are continually opening.

$100,000 FOR THE DISTRESSED

Bill Passed Senate Saturday—May
Pass House Today—Warships
Ordered to Martinique.

Washington, May 12.—The cruiser Cincinnati was ordered Saturday to proceed to Martinique without delay, investigate and report upon the situation and extend aid to the survivors. The ocean tug Potomac was probably on her way Saturday from the naval station at San Juan. The training ship Dixie was ordered to prepare for sea and she will be sent to Fort de France, should additional aid be required.

The action of the administration was endorsed and supplemented Saturday by the senate, which passed a bill offered by Mr. Fairbanks, appropriating $100,000 for the relief of the distressed at Martinique. This bill would have gone through the house with the same impressive promptness as in the senate had it not been for the objection of Representative Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama. Though sufficient official and unofficial information had been received showing the awfulness of the catastrophe, Mr. Underwood expressed the opinion that congress should await the receipt of "official details," and it will not now be possible for the house to act until today, when the measure will be taken up and passed.

The president is taking a special interest in the calamity, but the state department was unable to furnish him with any information. Consul Ayme, at Guadeloupe, suggested Friday that he be permitted to proceed to Martinique, and Secretary Hay cabled him permission Saturday morning. He is now on his way, having sailed on the French man-of-war Suchet, which is carrying supplies to the destitute of the devastated island. The department also has made inquiries of consuls at other points in the West Indies.

Washington, May 12.—The state department received a cablegram yesterday from United States Consul Ayme at Guadeloupe, stating that he would leave for Martinique last night. The state department cabled Consul Ayme Saturday to proceed at once to Martinique and report upon the situation there, but it is thought at the department that its instructions had not yet reached him, and that, realizing the need of prompt action, he has gone to Martinique of his own volition.

By the time this reaches the eye of the reader the seventy-fifth general assembly of Ohio will probably have finished its work, unless, as now seems unlikely, it should be called together in special session. It has been a very industrious body, having enacted a great deal of legislation and discussed and defeated a great deal more. Probably no legislature ever got through with its work without allowing some bills to pass that had been left alone, and it will be strange if the present body has been an exception to this rule. Time will tell, and if mistakes have been made they can speedily be remedied. Many meritorious measures have been made into law, while others, equally meritorious and equally important, have been defeated for various causes. Most important of all the bills passed have been those relating to taxation. The Republican party stood pledged to enact laws which would result in a more equitable distribution of tax burdens, and it is to be hoped it will be found, when the new laws have been tested, that good progress has been made in that direction. Certainly the assurance is welcome that the state's revenues will be increased millions and that in consequence a reduction in the state levy, benefiting all owners of real and personal property, is to ensue. An important new law is that allowing bonds to be issued by cities and towns without special acts of the legislature. The failure to pass any laws regulating the conduct of primary elections or to enact a uniform code for the government of Ohio cities is certainly to be regretted. But then, one legislature cannot do everything. The present general assembly, all things considered, has made a good record. The Columbiana county legislators, who have displayed much ability and good sense, are to be congratulated on the success which has attended their efforts to promote the welfare of local interests and deserve the thanks of their constituents for their faithfulness.

Movements are already in progress for the raising of funds for the relief of the surviving sufferers of the Martinique disaster. The latest reports only add to the horrors and show that there are thousands who fled from the destroyed towns for whom immediate assistance is imperative unless they are to die of starvation—a death infinitely more terrible even than that wrought by the lava's flood. The civilized world will doubtless see that everything possible is done that the stricken people may escape that fate.

Tales of revolting cruelty come from the girls' industrial home at Delaware, an institution which the state supports and pays liberally. If the charges are true, there cannot be too sudden or too complete a change in the management of the home. Inhumanity in a school which is founded for humane purposes is intolerable. It is no wonder that a wave of indignation has swept over the state. Let the truth come out, and then make the guilty suffer.

It is a pathetic story that comes from Wooster. A Methodist minister, who had labored faithfully for the welfare of various congregations for 50 years, but had become too old to labor longer, was overtaken by disease and poverty and died in the county infirmary. Query: Were all the congregations he had served Christians, or were they unaware of his condition?

The legislators who have allowed themselves to be gold-bricked into passing a bill relieving the railroads of the necessity of maintaining lights at city grade crossings won't receive a vote of thanks from the East Liverpool council, though they may from the Pennsylvania railroad.

Nations differ, if names don't. Silver came near proving fatal to William Jennings Bryan Phipps, of Indiana. He got a silver thimble in his throat. The man for whom he was named has had silver in his head as well as in his throat for many years and rather likes it.

Who says that women are not able to meet the requirements of higher education? In the Chicago university the girls are knocking each other senseless at basket ball games.

Mrs. Hettie Green has been granted a permit to carry a pistol to protect herself and her money. Carnegie proposes to get rid of his money so he won't need a pistol.

Senator Money talked to his colleagues the other day about the need of politeness and moderation in debate. Somebody ought to talk to him about good manners in a street car.

The Cubans, in rejoicing over the hoisting of the flag of Cuba Libre over Morro castle should not forget whose help enabled them to put it there.

ALL NON-RESIDENTS

Were the Three Offenders Arrested By the Police Saturday Night.

Had visitors given the city a wide berth on Saturday night and Sunday the police force would practically enjoy a two days' vacation, as not a single resident was placed in the toils. Three men, Frank Merritt, of Rochester, arrested by Officer Dunn; Robert Cargo, of Pittsburg, arrested by Officer Mahoney, and Joe McLaughlin, of Chester, by Officer McDermott, constituted the Monday morning lineup before the mayor.

Each pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly, and paid or made arrangements for a fine of $6.60.

Hospital Meetings.

The hospital committees will meet tomorrow evening at the usual hour and place. At seven o'clock the committee appointed for arranging the supper will meet to perfect plans for that event, while an hour later the hospital board will meet with the association. All members are urged to be present as very important business is to be transacted.

POTTERY NEWS

The impression seems to prevail among the manufacturing potters of Trenton that the much-talked-of pottery combination in the west is all talk, and that it is not only impracticable, but if accomplished would lead to no good results. A prominent Trenton manufacturer has said: "I was talking a few days ago with one of the biggest East Liverpool potters, and he said he had heard rumors of the proposed combination of western manufacturers. But he said his firm had not been approached in the matter."

The same man said that such a combination would only have the effect of compelling both the eastern and western potters to confine themselves to their own territory. If the western people tried to get into the eastern territory, or vice versa, he said there would be trouble. Charles Howell Cook, when asked about the combine said he had heard nothing of it except what he had seen in the newspapers.

George J. Bradshaw, manager of the Florentine pottery, Chillicothe, died May 2, aged 66. Mr. Bradshaw was born at Hanley, England, and while yet very young entered one of the largest establishments at Staffordshire. He was first employed in this country at the Eagle pottery in Trenton, and then came to East Liverpool to take the management of the Laughlin pottery. In 1887 he took charge of the Warwick China company's plant at Wheeling, and then went to Findlay, where he managed the Bell pottery. He went from there to Zanesville, where he superintended the art department of the Weller pottery.

Operative potters all over this section are looking forward with pleasure to the annual outing which will be held at Rock Springs park early next month. Advertising matter has been distributed in each city where a pottery is located, and from the talk heard, there is sure to be a larger gathering of operatives in the city on the occasion than ever before.

About one-third of the foundation of the new pottery which is to be built at Salineville is completed. There is a scarcity of labor at that town, and the building operations are being held back on this account. The stonemasons are now at work on the job.

J. Wheatley, formerly manager of the decorating department at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery, has resigned his position at that plant, and is now managing the decorating department of the New Castle factory.

Akron and Steubenville have a howling crowd of rooters at the Brotherhood convention for the honor of entertaining the next convention, and each city is making a fine race, with Akron so far a shade to the good.

Ralph Alcock, a printer at the Dresden, who has been suffering with rheumatism for several months, left Sunday for Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he will remain for some time. He was accompanied by his wife.

J. C. Deans, of the McNicol traveling force, who has been home but a short time from an extensive eastern trip, has again left for the west. He has received some very large orders of late.

William Devon, of Thompson avenue, fireman at the D. E. McNicol pottery, who has been seriously ill at his home for several days, is rapidly recovering, and will be about in a short time.

Some of the operatives who have returned from New Castle say that they had a funny experience there, and declare they do not want any more of it, and were glad to get home to Trenton.

W. E. Graves, a buyer from Birmingham, Ala., was in the city on Friday and Saturday. During his stay here he placed several large orders for immediate delivery.

Miss Ethel Burrows, of this city, has gone to Lisbon where she has taken a position as transferer at the Thomas China company.

The Smith-Phillips company is on the last quarter of its first year, and from present indications will complete the year satisfactorily.

Jack Mountford, of New Castle, who has been visiting friends here for a few days, has returned to his home.

Andrew Hughes is the name of a new turner at the National. He commenced work last week.

Harry Dickey, of Wellsville, has gone to Ford City, Pa., where he will operate a jigger.

Clement Ludwig, formerly a turner at Laughlin No. 2, is now located at the Union.

Township Trustee's Report Shows Only $55 Expended for Poor in April.

The report of Township Trustee Albright for the month of April shows that $55.22 was expended from the township treasury for the maintaining of the poor and that $59.95 was expended from the county poor fund. The latter fund would have been drawn on more heavily had not warehousemen's local paid $25 on the bill incident to the prolonged sickness of Harry Woods, a member of the local.

A material decrease is noticeable in the report compared with those of the winter months, January and February, showing nearly $100 expended from township treasury.

Notifying the God.

One of the odd things the visitor to Burma will notice is the large number of bells about the pagodas. These bells are usually hung on sacred posts a few feet above the ground.

They are sweet toned, as all Burmese bells are, but they are not furnished with tongues. The worshiper who comes to pray before the pagoda strikes one of these bells with a wooden mallet. This is to attract the attention of the god.

WELLSVILLE

MRS. PRELORENZO FINED

Compelled to Pay $16.60 for the Alleged Assault on Her Husband.

Referring to the recent trouble between Nicholas Prelorenzo and his wife last Monday morning in which, it is stated, Prelorenzo, was knocked out in the first round, his wife, having welded a chair rung upon his cranium a few times, the matter has now been disposed of in the mayor's court.

Mrs. Prelorenzo, it will be remembered, was placed under arrest at the time and released on bond. A hearing in the case has been heard before Mayor Fogo and Mrs. Prelorenzo was fined $16.60, which she paid.

Since the fracas of last Monday evening she has declared several times over that as soon as she was given a hearing she would leave her husband and return to her home, but she probably thought better of this as no such step has as yet been taken and everything is peace and quiet at the Prelorenzo home.

THE STRIKE STILL ON

Many of the Carroll-Porter Men Are Finding Work Elsewhere.

No settlement has as yet been reached in the Carroll-Porter boiler works strike. As far as the management is concerned no new terms will be offered. A large number of the men who are out have left the town, several having gone to Pittsburg and not a few to Wheeling. Most of those who have not left have returned to work at the same hours and wages as heretofore, so that but very few are now waiting until their demands are granted.

WIFE-BEATING CHARGED

Against Harry Fogo, Who Was Arrested at Her Home Sunday.

Harry Fogo was arrested on Sunday evening by Officer Thorne for raising a disturbance at his home. Fogo had been drinking earlier in the evening and when he returned to his residence, started a quarrel with his wife and as a result, it is said, that he beat her unmercifully. He will appear before Mayor Fogo today.

Services Largely Attended.

The pulpit at the First Presbyterian church was occupied yesterday, both morning and evening, by Rev. R. H. Hartley, D. D., of La Porte, Ind., who is now visiting the pastor, Rev. L. H. Lavery. The church was well crowded at both services. No special music was rendered.

SOURCES OF KNOWLEDGE.

You May Learn Something From Everybody You Meet.

One of the most useful success habits one can form is that of learning something from everybody with whom he comes in contact. No information which can be acquired is too trivial to be ignored.

Constantly measure yourself with the men you meet. You will find that every one can teach you something which you did not know before and which, perhaps, you would never have a chance to learn again if you did not acquire it from him.

Daniel Webster once made a great hit in arguing a case before a jury by repeating a story which he afterward said he had not thought of since he heard it fourteen years before. But Webster was always picking up something for future use. His famous reply to Hayne, the greatest speech ever delivered on the American continent, was largely made up of little reserves which he had picked up here and there in his reading, from studying men and from observation.

Many a prominent novelist has collected material for his stories by making notes of his conversations with those he has met and by observation. Charles Dickens got a great deal of the matter for some of his novels in this way.

One young man will go to a lecture and after spending an hour listening to the helpful, inspiring words of some prominent man will leave the hall or lecture room without having derived any benefit from the address. Another young man will attend the same lecture with an ambition to learn something. He will drink in the speaker's sentences as if he were never to hear such words of encouragement and inspiration again. At the conclusion of the address he will determine that he will make more of his opportunities in the future; that he will read more, think more, study more, be more than he ever was before. Such a young man has a purpose and is determined to learn something from everything he comes in contact with and from everybody he talks to. The other has no ambition, does not throw himself into what he does, lets his mind wander hither and thither, so that he never wholly understands what people are saying and therefore never derives any benefit or information from those with whom he converses.—Orison Swett Marden in Success.

The latest theory in connection with drowning is that no water enters the lungs and that heat properly applied, with artificial respiration, will resuscitate persons who have been under water for an hour. This feat has been accomplished by the doctor who advances the theory.

Somerville, the former two from New Cumberland, and the latter from Wheeling, are representing Shrader and others.

Swallowing Abilities of Snakes.

The jaws of the chicken snake, says a Texan, are hung on hinges that can be taken apart or displaced for the time being, as the case may be, and an entire Texas cottontail rabbit can be persuaded to enter, head and all, with little effort, and the body, being made of India rubberlike material and very stretchable, the kicking little animal soon finds a lodgment in the stomach. His snakeship then carefully resets his jaws so that his mouth assumes its normal size and blissfully reposes for the succeeding six hours. The powerful gastric juice does the balance, and no Texan can testify that he ever heard a chicken snake suffering from indigestion or chronic dyspepsia. The capture and digestion of chickens, song birds, turkey eggs and rats constitute simple pastime to the chicken snake and do not call for a six hour layoff in feeding time.

A Remarkable Sentence.

The Latin sentence, "Sator arepo tenet opera rotas," which is, it must be admitted, pretty bad Latin, is a curiosity nevertheless. It can be freely translated as "I cease from my work; the sower will wear away his wheels." Its fine oddities are these:

It spells the same backward as forward. The first letter of each word spells the first word.

The same may be said of the second, third, fourth and fifth letters.

The last letters, read backward, spell the first word, the next to the last the second word, and so on throughout.

There are just as many letters in each word as there are words in the sentence.

Her Good Business Head.

"You say she is a good business woman?"

"Oh, splendid, incomparable. She lets absolutely nothing drive business out of her head. Why, just before Harold started for Europe he proposed to her by letter and asked her to telegraph her answer."

"Well, most people would have telegraphed 'Yes' or 'No,' but she had enough of a business head to wire, 'It affords me great pleasure to say yes to you,' thus preventing the telegraph company from getting any advantage of her in charging for a ten word message."—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Corn Cure.

To cure corns get a little gutta percha tissue from a druggist, cut it into strips and then wind a piece round the corn, which must first be moistened with oil. See that the edges of the tissue are as even as possible, and when you have wound it round wet the inside of the end with spirits of turpentine. This will cause it to stick firmly if you press it down. With a feather dipped in turpentine touch the edges of the tissue, and they will unite. Leave for four days, then take off the dressing, and you will be able to remove the corn with the back of a penknife.

Piqued.

"What's the matter with grandfather?" "He's insulted. You see, he's nearly ninety, and he happened to hear you remark that the good die young."—Chicago Post.

The Railroad the Key to the Trust Riddle

By MARTIN A. KNAPP, Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission

NO BODY OF MEN CAN ACQUIRE $100,000,000 IN A SCORE OF YEARS WITHOUT GROSSLY DEFAUDING THEIR FOLLOWERS BY SECURING RATES AND FACILITIES FOR PUBLIC CARRIAGE OF WHICH OTHERS ARE DEPRIVED. That is the sleight of hand by which the marvel is produced, the key to the riddle which has alarmed the nations.

RAILROADS ENGAGED IN PUBLIC SERVICE ARE ONLY PURVEYORS OF THE PUBLIC PRIVILEGE, AND LARGE SHIPPERS ARE ENTITLED TO NO SMALLER RATES FOR THEIR COMMODITIES THAN IS THE SMALLER SHIPPER IN THE SAME LINE.

No service which the government undertakes can be more useful and no duty which rests upon it is more imperative than to secure for the public always and everywhere equal treatment by every railway carrier. WHEN THE NATURAL ADVANTAGES OF CAPITAL ARE AUGMENTED BY ARBITRARY DEDUCTIONS FROM CHARGES COMMONLY IMPOSED, THE COMBINATION IS POWERFUL ENOUGH TO FORCE ALL RIVALS FROM THE FIELD. Production is controlled, wages are fixed, prices raised to the desired profit, monopoly reigns.

Deprived of special and exclusive rates, an advantage far greater and more odious than exemption from taxation, these trusts would be shorn of their advantages and divested of their principal danger.

WHAT MOVED THE DOG?

A Remarkable Story of Canine Intelligence and Affection.

Among the tales told of the intelligence and affection of our canine friends by Mrs. Sarah K. Bolton in her book, "Our Devoted Friend, the Dog," is the story of Dan, a deerhound owned by Mr. L. C. Meachamp of Homer, La.

Mr. Meachamp was one day going on a squirrel hunt and, not wishing Dan to accompany him, tied the dog to a post by a rope. Dan whined and begged, but finding his master obdurate he at last lay down quietly before his kennel.

It was growing dusk and time for the hunter to return, when Mrs. Meachamp was suddenly disturbed by the whining and barking of the dog, who had been quiet all day up to that time. She spoke to the dog, but instead of being pacified at this attention he redoubled his exertions and broke the rope which held him. Then he bounded away, over the fence and into the woods.

He was gone perhaps half an hour when he came running back, panting and almost breathless, with his master's hat in his mouth.

Mrs. Meachamp became at once alarmed, and, calling her son, they set off to find the missing man, Dan all the time bounding ahead and leading the way. At length they came upon Mr. Meachamp lying helpless in the woods, where he had fallen into a little ditch and broken his leg.

The accident happened, as nearly as could be reckoned, at the moment when the dog began to show his uneasiness. That he should have had knowledge of the accident seems incredible, but his master firmly believes that he did know it and that it was because he knew it that he was so anxious to get away.

CITIES HARD TO KILL.

What Rome, Paris, Constantinople and London Have Suffered.

It is a difficult thing to kill a city, and there are some well known places that have so much vitality that they will survive any number of disasters.

Take Rome as a first example. No fewer than ten times has she been swept by pestilence. She has been burned twice and starved out on six occasions. Seven times she has been besieged or bombarded. But she still flourishes. Perhaps that is why she is called the Eternal City.

Paris has had eight sieges, ten famines, two plagues and one fire which devastated it. We make no reference to the number of revolutions, as they are too numerous to mention. But Paris is still flourishing.

Constantinople has been burned out nine times and has suffered from four plagues and five sieges. There are some people who think that many of the sieges have been as bad for the city as any pestilence. And yet she goes on.

Lastly there is the English metropolis. London began as a kind of mound in a swamp. In her early history she was sacked, burned and all her inhabitants butchered. She has been decimated by plague five times, exclusive of typhus, cholera and such maladies. She has been more or less burned seven times. She is thriving in spite of all.

Reason For the Hit.

"Was Mrs. Gabbot's 'conversazione' a success?"

"Decidedly. Everybody chatted at a great rate."

"How did she ever manage it?"

"Oh, she had a musical programme, you know, that lasted all through."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

CANTON MARINES AGAIN VICTORIOUS

Defeated the Locals For the Second Time After a Hard Struggle.

LARGE CROWD A GAME

Overcoats Were Worn And Many Suffered From Cold—Scene Like That of a Gathering of a Foot Ball Game. Features of the Game.

By winning the game Saturday afternoon in West End park from the locals the Canton Marines were enabled to leave for their homes with two scalps out of a possible three. However, during their experience as ball players they stated that they were never before against a tougher proposition than in the last two games. On Friday they had the game won in the ninth inning and then had to go away back, due to an awful effort of the locals. On Saturday they were beaten almost beyond a possible chance for recovery until the seventh, when by a vigorous spurt they tore away and won in the ninth, after a most desperate struggle. Said Manager Walsh: "With the game in our hands, every man playing a pretty game, it was indeed hard to give up."

Quite a crowd, numbering probably 500, witnessed the game notwithstanding that the air was cold and raw. From the general appearance of the spectators, many of them wearing their heavy winter overcoats and scores shivering from the effects of the cold, the scene looked like a gathering at a foot ball game.

A howl of disappointment came from the fans when they missed the appearance of Godwin at short. Many attended only to see him at his old position and were sorely put out when they learned that he had gone to Rochester to play in the opening game against a team from Pittsburg. Contentment and satisfaction, however, was soon displayed when they discovered that Tommy Boyle had been placed as his substitute. The Pittsburg team most certainly acquitted himself in great style. His run to right field, capturing a high fly, and his jump past second when he got his man at first after considerable juggling, brought forth wild cheers of admiration.

Throughout the game a total of only five errors was made and three of them were excusable. The players state that the majority of errors made on the local grounds are due to the condition of the field. The diamond is as hard as stone, while the outfield is almost impassable, owing to the scattering of clods of dirt.

The visitors started the exciting contest with Berry and Maag out on three strikes, a single by Whitnight, who was left on first by Taibert going out on a fly to middle. Had it not been for the error made by Maag on McCarron's grounder the locals would have followed in order. As it was, Heckathorn, the next man up, put the side out on a fly, neither team scoring. In the second and until the sixth the Marines went out with only three at the bat each inning. The locals fared better, scoring a run in the second and one in the fifth, but after that they were powerless, not being credited with a single score. Following the run in the sixth, the visitors fixed the result in the seventh, Poizell, Reilly and Miller each got a hit and eventually scored on an error by Davis and several other misplays. In the eighth they were satisfied with a hit and in the ninth pounded out a two-bagger and a single. Sperry scoring and incidentally ending the game with the score standing 5 to 2 in their favor.

Davis at third has few equals. He always knows when to throw the ball to first, which fact he well demonstrated in the seventh inning. Black was up and grounded to him. Poizell started home at the same time that Black started for first. Then was when Davis showed his superiority by throwing to first instead of home, where he could have stopped Poizell's run. Davis was complimented highly for the play.

Webb badly crippled himself in the second and went to the bench. Kelly, of a Pittsburg team, was substituted and filled the place admirably. He got a putout and two assists, which together with other plays, will result in his being signed.

GOD GUIDE MINERS.

Prayer Bishop Hoban Asked Catholics In Scranton Diocese to Pray.

ALSO THAT TROUBLE BE SETTLED

Some of the Operators Decide Not to Try to Operate—Strike Already Caused Laying Off Number of Railroaders and Shop Men.

Scranton, Pa., May 12.—At the 8 o'clock mass in the cathedral Sunday morning Bishop Hoban asked the congregation to pray that the miners should be given light to do what is for the best and that something will intervene to insure a cessation of the conflict.

There will be no coal mined in the Scranton end of the anthracite region today. Even though the strike order was not certain of being religiously obeyed there would be no mining, as the companies agreed at a meeting of the general managers and superintendents Saturday that no attempt would be made to operate. Some of the companies, however, propose to keep a few, at least, of their washeries running, to insure a supply of culm for locomotives, hoisting engines and the like.

The strike has already made itself seriously felt in other lines of work. The railroads have laid off four-fifths of their coal train crews, in all about 800 men, and the Erie shops at Dunmore, where mine cars and machinery are repaired, have been shut down indefinitely, beginning today, throwing 300 men out of employment.

Best Element Opposed To Striking. Meetings of all the locals will be held today to elect and instruct the delegates to the Hazleton convention. The sentiment among the more thoughtful and intelligent miners is opposed to a continuance of the strike.

Hazleton, Pa., May 12.—Coxe Bros. & Co., operating the Beaver Meadow colliery, and Calvin Pardee, Sons & Co., owners of the Lattimer mines, Saturday night notified their employees that they need not report for work until ordered to do so. This order does not apply to engineers, firemen and pump runners, whose services are necessary to keep the mines free from water. These companies, it is believed, expect a long struggle. The Lehigh Valley Coal company announced yesterday that it will give employment to all men who report for work today.

Meetings of the United Mine Workers' locals were held in most of the mining villages in the Hazleton district yesterday and delegates were elected to the coming convention. It was impossible to ascertain the attitude of the locals on the strike question.

11-YEAR OLD BOY SUICIDES.

He Accidentally Shot a Companion, Who, It Was Believed, Will Recover.

Somerset, Pa., May 12.—Dewees McKelvey, aged 11 years, a son of one of the most prominent families of Somerset, lies dead at his home and another boy named Bricker, aged 15, is seriously injured as the result of a tragedy which occurred here at 7:30 last evening.

The two boys were out with a Flobert rifle, shooting at birds and other objects. McKelvey had the gun and in some way it was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking young Bricker in the mouth, plunging its way clear through the neck and coming out at the back of the neck. McKelvey, seeing this, ran to his home. He hastened upstairs with the gun, placed the muzzle to his forehead, and discharged the weapon. He was found lying on the floor, the gun beside him. Physicians were quickly summoned, but at 9 o'clock he died. While Bricker's wound is serious it will probably not prove fatal.

WHEN WILL THEY VOTE?

Senators of Different Opinion, as to the Philippine Government Measure.

Washington, May 12.—Senator Rawlins, senior Democratic member of the senate committee on the Philippines, yesterday expressed the opinion that a vote could be reached on the Philippine government bill towards the end of the present week. Other members of the committee think the date of the vote may be postponed until some time next week, but none of them place the vote later than the 14th inst., two weeks hence. They say that whenever the debate is exhausted they will agree to vote, but that they object to naming a day for a vote until they are quite certain that there is nothing more to say pertinent to the subject.

Probable Work For the Week. The consideration of the bill this week will be interspersed with the consideration of appropriation bills, today being set apart for the fortification bill and tomorrow for the agricultural appropriation bill. Neither of these measures will consume a great deal of time, and on each day it is expected there will be time left for the consideration of the Philippine bill. Senator Foraker has given notice of a speech on the Philippine subject today and Senator Stewart will speak tomorrow, both in support of the pending bill. Senator Spooner also probably will be heard on the bill, near the end of the week. Among the opponents of the bill still to be heard are Senators Clay and Money. It is probable that considerable debate will grow out of the speeches of Senators Foraker and Spooner. Senator Lodge has given notice that on Tuesday he will move to meet at 11 o'clock each day to facilitate consideration of the Philippine bill.

Forecast of the House. Washington, May 12.—Today is District of Columbia day in the house. Special orders have been made for the consideration of several bills to follow the disposition of District business. They include the bill to authorize the issue of passports to residents of our insular possessions; the Adams bill for the reorganization of the consular service and a day for the consideration of war claims. The conference report on the omnibus bill will also be considered this week. Such time as remains will be devoted to the naval appropriation bill.

500 ON ST. VINCENT

Believed to Have Perished--Up to Friday. There Were Over 200 Deaths.

WHOLE FAMILIES AMONG DEAD.

Corpses Were Lying Unburied, but Were to Be Interred in Trenches. Great Distress on the Island—Food and Water Famine Threatened.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., May 12.—Advises received here from the island of Dominica yesterday said that boats arriving there reported that many persons were drowned while crossing to Dominica from the island of Martinique, where some of the outposts have been inundated. The eruption of Mont Pelée (Martinique) continues. The lava is progressing northward. The whole northern region is now a rocky waste, denuded of vegetation.

Reports from the island of St. Vincent said that up to the afternoon of Friday last over 200 deaths had occurred there, owing to the volcanic outbreak in that island. Definite news, however, is lacking. Many estates were destroyed and steam and ashes were belched forth from 7 in the morning until 9:30 at night. The eruption was invisible yesterday at Kingston. Huge dust clouds were blown eastward. Great distress prevails at St. Vincent, where there are many injured persons.

Believed Dead Numbered 500.

It is believed that 500 persons lost their lives at St. Vincent. The majority of the corpses were still unburied.

The British royal mail steamer Solent has gone from Barbadoes to Martinique with supplies and doctors.

From the island of Trinidad the British royal mail steamer Kennet has gone to Fort de France.

The British second-class cruiser Indefatigable is on her way from Trinidad to St. Vincent with stores for the relief of the sufferers there.

It was reported here that Fort de France (Martinique) is threatened.

Kingston, Island of St. Vincent, British West Indies, Saturday, May 10.—After numerous earthquakes during the preceding fortnight, accompanied by subterranean noises in the direction of the Soufriere volcano, in the northwestern part of the island, a loud explosion from the crater occurred Monday last and the water in the crater lake ascended in a stupendous cloud of steam and exploded heavily. The noises grew louder continually until Wednesday morning, when the old crater, three miles in circumference, and the new crater formed by the last eruption, belched smoke and stones, forcing the residents of Wallibou and Richmond valley, beneath the volcano, to flee to Chateau Belair for refuge.

Noises Heard 200 Miles Away.

The thunderous noises, which were continually increasing, were heard in neighboring islands 200 miles away.

At midday the craters ejected enormous columns of steamy vapor, rising majestically eight miles high and expanding into wonderful shapes, resembling enormous cauliflower, gigantic wheels and beautiful flower forms, all streaked up and down and crosswise with vivid flashes of lightning, awing the beholder and impressing the mind with fear. The mountain labored to rid itself of a mass of molten lava, which later flowed over in six streams, down the side of the volcano, and the greater noises following united in one continuous roar all evening, through the night to Thursday morning, accompanied with black rain, falling dust and favailla scoria, attended with midnight darkness all Wednesday, creating feelings of fear and anxious suspense.

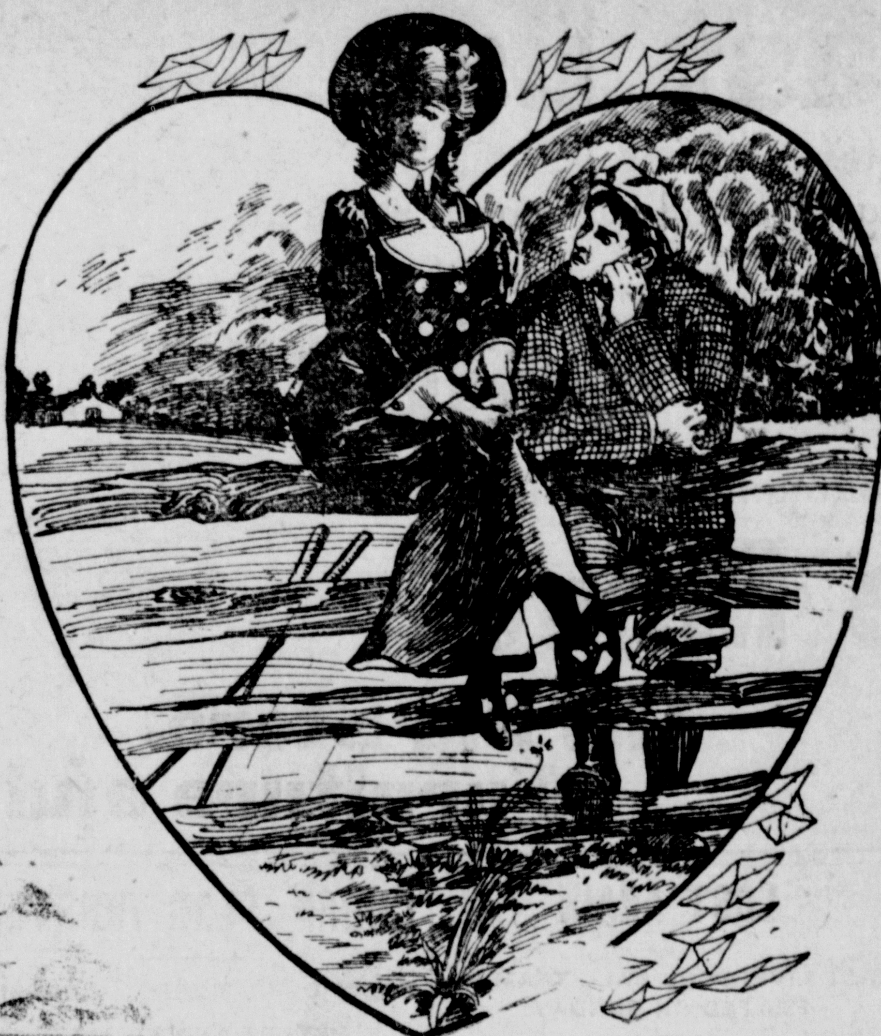

On the morning of Friday there was a fresh eruption and ejections of fiery matter, more dust covering the island in some places two feet deep.

The crater is still active as this dispatch is sent, and great loss of life is believed to have occurred.

The lava has destroyed several districts with their live stock. People are fleeing to this town, streams are dried up and in many places a food and water famine is threatened. The government is feeding numbers of sufferers from the outbreak.

Great Physical Changes Caused.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. SHE OFTEN VISITED MARTINIQUE ISLE

MOTHER OF MRS. THOS. BLACKMORE BORN IN THAT REGION.

Often Told Interesting Stories of the Island Now So Sorely Stricken.

Mrs. Catherine Barker, whose death occurred in this city about 14 years ago, mother of Mrs. Thomas Blackmore, of East Market street, was born on Barbadoes Island, one of those of the British West India group, about 80 miles from the stricken island of Martinique.

This fact was known to but few of Mrs. Barker's acquaintances, though she often recounted interesting narratives of her native country. Mrs. Blackmore, of East Market street, remembers little of her mother, who died when she was quite young.

Mrs. Clay Gould, residing on Broadway, was a friend of Mrs. Barker and knows much of her life's history. To a reporter this morning Mrs. Gould told some interesting facts in connection with Mrs. Barker's residence in the West Indies. Her father was the owner of a sugar plantation and was immensely wealthy. He owned a number of vessels with which he did his own shipping.

Being thus afforded good opportunities to travel, Mrs. Barker made numerous trips to the different islands surrounding the one on which she lived and on several occasions visited Martinique. She frequently spoke about Martinique and knew much about the country, though she was only 17 years of age when her father moved away from there and came to the United States.

After stopping at Philadelphia for a short time the family went to Canada, where they remained a few years, after which Mrs. Barker, who had in the meantime been married, came to East Liverpool with her husband. This was about the time the civil war broke out and Mr. Barker enlisted. While serving his country he contracted an illness which caused his death.

Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Barker, one of whom is Mrs. Blackmore. Her sister is living in Canada. The mother died in this city when about 50 years of age and her remains lie in the Riverview cemetery.

The island on which Mrs. Barker lived, while not in the immediate pathway of the terrible volcano which worked such havoc in Martinique, was covered with dust from one end to the other to the depth of three or four inches.

PULLED HAIR

North Side Women Get Into a Somewhat Lively Mixup.

Two well known women residing near the Grant street school house indulged in a fight this morning which was witnessed by dozens of their neighbors.

The trouble is said to have started over a quarrel had by the children of the women. The first round was started by a powerful smack on one of the belligerents' cheeks, and then began a hair pulling match. A rolling pin was brought into play before the fight ended, but no serious damage done with it. The case is likely to end in one of the local courts.

LOST AGAIN

EAST LIVERPOOL BALL TEAM DEFEATED ON SUNDAY.

Painesville Put Up a Stiff Game and Downed the Boys 3 to 1.

At Canton Sunday afternoon the East Liverpool baseball team lost to the Painesville team of Wheeling by a score of 3 to 1. There was an immense crowd attended the game, this city being fairly represented. The work of Lou Maley in the box for the locals was marveled at by all. He is but 17 years of age, and notwithstanding, pitched a game of which many leaguers would be proud, holding the Painesville boys, who have an international reputation, down to 7 hits.

His reputation was made in the game, and he will immediately rise from the third nine to star pitcher's place with the first.

The score by innings:
Painesville... 1 1 0 1 0 0 0 0—3 7 1
E. Liverpool... 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1 7 2
Batteries—Burns and Needham; Maley and Emmerling.

A DAY WITH NATURE

Most Agreeably Spent By the Members of the Century Club.

A most delightful session of the New Century club was held last Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Newell, on the Southside.

Appropriate to the season, the subject for the afternoon's talk was "A Day With Nature." As is the custom of the club, the members responded to roll call with quotations pertaining to the subject assigned for the day's study. One from Wordsworth was especially fitting:

"One impulse from vernal wood
May teach you more of man,
Of moral evil and of good,
Than all the sages can."

Then Miss Newell read a paper upon "The Deeper Meanings of Nature," in the absence of its author, Miss Moore. The paper was especially good and Miss Moore was the recipient of favorable comment.

After a social hour spent roaming over the fields and gathering wild flowers, the guests partook of delightful refreshments.

This is the last meeting of the season, but the business meeting, when officers will be elected, will be held May 24.

CALCUTTA ROAD CARS

The Company Will Have Three Ready for Use As Needed.

The East Liverpool Street Railway company has another car ready to place on the Calcutta Hill road, known as the "Grandview Division." In the future, when the car that has been operated on that road for months is unfit for use, it will be taken to the barn and another car taken to the hill.

The company has been delayed in preparing this car upon account of the non arrival of the track brakes, but now that these have come, the car is ready for use. The company is rigging up another car for this road, making a total of three cars that will be ready to place on the road at a moment's notice.

CUBAN FLAG HOISTED.

FLEW OVER MORRO, ALONGSIDE STARS AND STRIPES.

President-Elect Palma Reached Havana—Given an Enthusiastic Welcome.

Havana, May 12.—At 23 minutes of 8 yesterday morning a large Cuban flag was hoisted over Morro castle here.

This was the signal that the steamer Julia, with President-elect Estrada Palma and his party on board, had been sighted, and cheers went up from the thousands who, on the shore opposite Morro castle, had patiently awaited the Julia's arrival since daybreak. The crowd cheered for the new president and for the flag, which was hoisted on the famous fortress for the first time.

Moment of Exultation For Cubans.

It was a moment of exultation for the Cubans, and the fact that the Stars and Stripes floated from its customary flag staff beside the Cuban flag over the castle did not lessen their enthusiasm.

The Cuban flag flying over Morro was the same one which was first raised over the senate chamber. It was sent to the castle Sunday. As it rose the bands stationed along the water front played the Cuban national hymn, steamers saluted and church bells were rung.

Two hours later, after the last of the great fleet of vessels that had gone out to escort the Julia to the harbor had returned past Morro castle, this flag was lowered and raised over the senate chamber.

There was continuous saluting as the Julia sailed between the rows of decorated tugs and barges and there were cheers from the crowded wharves. The several warships in the harbor were also decorated. The Stars and Stripes floated over the wreck of the Maine, and under this flag the Cuban commission in charge of the festivities had caused a black and white pennant to be placed.

The steam tug Dauntless, the old filibuster, was given the right of the line in the marine procession.

Welcomed By Vice President.

When he arrived at the wharf the president-elect was welcomed by Vice President Esteve in a brief speech. A pretty feature of the reception here was Senor Estrada Palma's welcome by 23 young Cuban women dressed in costumes representing the American republics. Senora Durio, who represented Cuba, delivered an address and read a poem.

From the wharf the president-elect was escorted to the palace by members of the rural guard. Governor General Wood, his staff and the secretaries received Senor Estrada Palma at the palace. From here the president-elect proceeded to the municipal council building, where speeches were made by the mayor of Havana and Senor Zayas and Senor Palma.

Accompanied By Gov. Gen. Wood. General Wood accompanied Senor Estrada Palma to the residence of General Maximo Gomez, where the president-elect will reside until his inauguration, May 20.

The municipal council gave a breakfast in honor of Senor Estrada Palma at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was seated at the right of the mayor of the city, while General Gomez was seated at the mayor's left.

At a dinner given last night by General Wood, Senor Estrada Palma, General Gomez, the archbishop of Havana, the secretaries and a number of prominent Cubans were present.

Mrs. Estrada Palma, wife of the president-elect, will be welcomed officially when she arrives here today. She left New York May 8 for Havana on the Ward line steamer Havana.
